

DAUCHY & CO.

of Dauchy & Co., New York City. We have invariably found this Company fair and honorable in business transactions. Should any of our citizens desire to extensively advertise any business, we doubt not that they will find Messrs. Dauchy & Co. an advantageous agency through which to do it.

Democrat, Boone, Iowa.

If there is one advertising agency that we can recommend to our brethren of the quill, it is the firm of Dauchy & Co., 75 Fulton Street, New York. We have found them to be a safe and reliable firm, besides being accommodating, which is more than we can say of some other New York advertising agencies. They are at present the only authorized agents for the Democrat in New York City, we having canceled our contracts with other firms.

Press, Portland, Me.

ADVERTISING AGENTS.—In looking over our list of exchanges we notice that Messrs. Dauchy & Co., Advertising Agents, at No. 75 Fulton Street, New York, are greatly extending their business connections with New England newspapers. We have dealt with this firm for a number of years, with satisfactory results to ourselves. They have fulfilled their contracts with us in a very liberal spirit.

Daily Herald, Rutland Vt.

ADVERTISING AGENCY.—We have done business with Messrs. Dauchy & Co., Advertising Agents, 75 Fulton St., New York, for several years, and have always found them reliable and prompt in their payments. We can recommend the agency to our brethren of the press.

Gazette, Eddyville, Iowa.

We are under renewed obligations to Messrs. Dauchy & Co., of New York, for favors shown us the past week. This is one of the oldest and most reliable advertising firms in the United States, and we cordially recommend