4. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Inspectors and Superintendents of the Police may from time to time, subject to the approbation of the Civil Secretary, make such orders and regulations as they shall deem expedient, relative to the General Government of the Men to be appointed members of the Police Force under this Ordinance, the places of their residence, the classification, rank and particular service of the several Members, their distribution and inspection, the description of arms, accoutrements and other necessities to be furnished to them, and all such other orders and regulations, relative to the said Police force, as the said Inspectors and Superintendents of the Police shall from time to time deem expedient, for preventing neglect or abuse, and for rendering such force efficient in the discharge of all its duties; and the said Inspectors and Superintendents of the Police may at any time suspend or dismiss from his employment any man belonging to the said Police force, whom they shall think remiss or negligent in the discharge of his duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that when any man shall be so dismissed or cease to belong to the said Police force, all powers vested in him as a Constable by virtue of this Act, shall immediately cease and determine.

5. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any Victualler or Keeper of any house, shop, room, or other place for the sale of any liquors, whether spirituous or otherwise, shall knowingly harbour or entertain any man belonging to the said Police force, or permit such man to abide or remain in his or her house, shop, room, or other place during any part of the time appointed for his being on duty, every such Victualler or Keeper as aforesaid, being convicted thereof before any two Justices of the Peace, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay such sum, not exceeding five pounds sterling money of Great Britain, as they shall think meet.

6. And it is further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for any man belonging to the said Police force, during the time of his being on duty, to apprehend all loose, idle and disorderly persons whom he shall find disturbing the public peace, or whom he shall have just cause to suspect of any evil designs, and all persons whom he shall find lying in any field, highway, yard or other place, or loitering therein, and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves, and to deliver any person, so apprehended, into the custody of the constable appointed under this Ordinance, who
