Rugby Gossip.

The Rugby season opens in Montreal to lay with an exhibition game between Montreal and McGill. A lot of new face at Rosedale. The game will be more of a tryout than anythina else, and will show the good and bad spots on the two teams. Both teams have agreed to let each other change players as often as they see fit, and the scullers will try out all their senand the scullers will try out all their senlor material at some time or other in the game, and, as the Tigers will do the same, those who journey to Rosedale to-morrow will be able to get a line on all the touted stars. Argos had their final workout last night at Bayside Park, and a general limbering up in preparation for to-day was the order. Coach Ripley is confident that the blue and white boys will give the Tigers a good argument. ers a good argument.

The Rugby football players of the Toronto Canoe Club are requested to be at the Rosedale Athletic clubhouse by 1.15 sharp, as the Junior O.R.F.U. game with St. Michael's College must be started at 1.20 sharp, as the senior game between Argonauts and Hamilton must commence at 2 p.m. It is necessary for the players to bring their football clothes with them and dress at the above clubhouse.
