STORY OF HIS LIFE London, Dec. 10,-William Hohenzoliern, the former German emperor, has had several interviews at Ame-rongen with two German experts on international law, with whom he dis-cussed his personal position, according to an Amsterdam despatch to The Express. These expents arrived and left Amerongen in a most mysterious manner. It is understood, according to the despatch, that Herr Hohenzollern is writing his autobiography and a history of his reign. He will explain his attitude before and during the war, it is gaid. The book, which will be long, is intended for publication, or if its author is tried before an international tribunal, may be read as a part of his defence.

DEMOCRACY AN ARMY.

Chatham, Dec. 10.—"Autocracy has an army, but democracy is an army," declared Dr. M. S. Rice, of Detroit, foremost American orator, addressing the Canadian Club at luncheon today. He said that even if America had not entered the war, sooner or later the British Empire could have licked Germany alone.
