String Quartette Concert.

The fourth recital of the Conservatory String Quartet was given in the music hall of the Conservatory on Thursday evening to a large and well-pleased audience. On this occasion the quartet was assisted by Miss Bessic Cowan, planist, and Miss Annie Hallworth, soprano. The quartet has never been heard to better advantage, and the first number on the programa Dvorak's F major, which, by the way, was given by special request, was rend-Dvorak's F major, which, by the way, was given by special request, was rendered in a spirited manner, with such attention to details of phrasing and expression that showed the evidence of careful rehearsing, as well as a genuine love for the work itself. The Svensden number was also performed in a finished manner. Miss Hallworth's songs were well received, and she was honored by several encores. The Beethoven Quartet, which introduced Miss Bessie Cowan as pianist, was, of course, the most important number on the program. Assisted by Mrs. Adamson Miss Hayes and Mr. Saunders on their respective instruments, she play-Miss Hayes and Mr. Saunders on their respective instruments, she played the plano part of the entire quartet in a most intelligent manner, her smoothness and clearness of technique being most marked. All thru she showed an evidence of reserved force (not always displayed by planists in ensemble chamber music). She was not lacking in the necessary virility where the occasion required. The rather difficult elaborations in the Andante Cantabile were charmingly rendered, and the ponderous scale passages in the last movement were played without a blurr. As at the last of this series of concerts, the Mason & Risch Grand Piano was used, and proved itself equal to all the demands made as a most effective instrument for ensemble and solo work.

We finally tried your Powley's Liquified Ozone and we are happy to tell you that after using four bottles our little one is entirely cured and is in perfect health, as you can see by her picture we are sending you.

You are at liberty to publish this in any papers you wish and to use my daughter's picture to confirm my statements. We thank you for your wonderful remedy and attribute our little daughter's recovery to Ozone alone, as no other remedies did her any good.

We have recommended Ozone to others, who have used it and been wonderfully benefitted by it.

TORONTO'S NOBLE EXAMPLE. The Guarantee List for the Mackensie Musical Festival is

That Toronto is giving a splendid eximple to other cities which are interested in the Cycle of Festivals to be conducted thruout Canada by Sir Alexander Mackenzie is evidenced by the splendid proportions which the guarantee list is assuming. The chairman of the Citizens' Committee, Mr. S. Nordheimer, stated yesterday that the guarantee fund to date amounted to over $25,000, chiefly composed of guarantees of $500 and $200. While the expenses are to be limited to $8000, it is the committee's intention to show the interest of Toronto in the best of British music by vaising a guarantee fund of $50,000, and thus give a splendid inauguration to the Cycle of Festivals which Mr. Charles A. At Toledo, O., this week, Martin Harvey took suddenly Ill, and was unable to appear in "The Only Way," owing to grip. He had never before missed an appearance, and was without a regular understudy, but A. B. Imeson, the stage manager, with scarcely an hour's preparation, to quote from The Bee, "stepped into the breach and played the exacting role of Sidney Carton with such power and fire and exquisite art that the audience, tho prejudiced and displeased by the announcement of Mr. Harvey's illness, warmed and glowed and burst into such a flame of hearty applauses as the Valentine seldom knows. It was one of the most wonderful pieces of acting ever seen in Toledo or anywhere else."
