JOHN CATTO & SON King Street—opposite the Post-Office

Ira D. Sankey III. New York, March 6.—Ira D. Sankey, the singing evangelist and former associate of Dwight L. Moody, has been, according to his son, Allan, quite ill for some time, from overwork. An eye disease developed, and it was necessary to perform an operation. On account of Mr. Sankey's weakened condition, the disease did not yield readily to treatment. He is now improving, however, and hope is expressed that he will ultimately recover.

LENNOX AND S. OXFORD SAFE

No Appeal From Trial Judge's Decision Holding a Man Not Guilty.

CHARGES WERE NOT CONSIDERED

Court Dismissed Appeals on Technical Grounds—Interesting Judgment Rendered.

The fierce white light that beats upon the throne and focused its rays with such disastrous effect on the humbler pedestal of Andrew Macassey, glanced harshly from the local House representatives of Lennox and South Oxford—T. L. Carscallen and Donald Sutherland. The petitions against their being allowed to take their seats were yesterday dismissed by the Court of Appeal on the ground that that court had not jurisdiction to hear the appeals. The ground of dismissal is purely technical, and the merits of the cases were not entered into.

Objection Was Taken. In the argument on the Lennox appeal at Osgoode Hall on Jan. 3, the counsel for the respondent, Mr. Carscallen, raised the objection that the court had no jurisdiction, as the judges of the trial court, held in Nanapan, had disagreed as to whether the successful candidate, Mr. Carscallen, had been guilty of corrupt practices in paying money to J. W. Wilson, janitor of the Town Hall at Bath. The judges noted the objection, but allowed the appeal to proceed subject thereto.

The Reasons Why. Judgment was delivered by Chief Justice Moss, who first referred to the question of jurisdiction. The point was taken that the establishment of the charges forming the subject of the appeal involved the disqualification of the respondent and of other persons, and subjected them to disabilities and penalties for corrupt practices. It was held that a candidate or other persons who had not been found guilty of a corrupt practice by the two trial judges, had at least two shields against an appeal to this court. Reference was made to Section 57 of the Controverted Elections Act, and to Section 171 of the Ontario Act. By the former of these it is enacted that there shall be no appeal from the decision of the judges finding that a candidate or other person had not been guilty of corrupt practices. By the latter of these it is provided that no candidate or other person is to be disqualified or subjected to any disability or penalty for any corrupt practice, unless he has been found guilty of such a corrupt practice, without the concurrent judgment to that effect of the two judges by whom the election petition was tried.

The appellants sorely contended that if the trial judges had agreed in their finding in respect of all the charges, an appeal could, nevertheless, be made. Indeed, the first ground of appeal in such a case, but as I understand the argument, it is that the trial judges having disagreed in respect of at least one charge, there is no decision as regards it, and an appeal in such a case is expressly provided for by Section 56 of the Controverted Elections Act.

POWER OF PERSONAL MAGNETISM

Startling Secrets Laid Bare by an Adept in This Mystic Art.

How Men and Women Are Fascinated and Held Spell-Bound by This Strange Mysterious Force.

The Long-Lost Secrets of the Magic Power of the Wise Men of Old Fully and Completely Revealed at Last.

Prof. Robertson, president of the Columbia Scientific Academy of the City of New York, is an adept in the science of personal magnetism. He probably knows more about the subtle art of personal influence than any living man. He has just written a new book, entitled "The Secret of Power," the copyright of which he has given away on condition that 25,000 copies of the first edition be distributed to the public absolutely free of charge. But do not mistake Prof. Robertson's great work with advertised courses in hypnotism for the purpose of learning how to influence others and get along in life. Hypnotism is not personal magnetism. Prof. Robertson has determined to put a stop to what he considers a gross imposition on the public, by having his book distributed throughout the country absolutely free of charge, thus giving all persons who really want to master the real secrets of personal magnetism an opportunity to do so.

Prof. Robertson's book covers the art of fascination, magnetic healing, the wonders of scientific character reading, the hand, face, head and handwriting, scientific second sight, the development of the mysterious "X-ray faculty," and Prof. Robertson's original secret method of quick physical development. It is the most comprehensive and exhaustive work on personal influence that has ever been published. It is the only book that we have seen that really starts the student out on a scientific basis, that puts him on the right road. Prof. Robertson's methods require no subjects on which to practice, no long, weary hours of study in which to learn. The moment you read his instructions you can apply them, you can wield a wonderful influence over a man even a thousand miles away. This may seem incredible, but we have tested it for ourselves and can vouch for its truthfulness. You can read the secret nature of people at a glance; you can cure diseases and bad habits without drugs or medicines; you can win and hold friends as easily as you can lose them; you can gain the love and affection of others; you can become a great social or business leader; you can acquire wealth and influence if you will but develop your hidden powers and master nature's secret laws. But do not mistake Prof. Robertson's great work with advertised courses in hypnotism. Prof. Robertson can tell you all about hypnotic power. He knows it from A to Z. But what you want is something that you can use without the knowledge of anyone else, something that you can learn, without a lot of subjects on which to practice; something that will develop in you that subtle, unseen force that controls, charms and fascinates, that makes you supreme master of every situation. Prof. Robertson's free book describes your wants better than you know them yourself. It is highly endorsed by prominent ministers of the gospel, lawyers and business men. It is intensely interesting from start to finish.

If you want a copy, write at once to the publishers, The Columbia Scientific Academy, Dept. 1010, 1831 Broadway, New York. The books are going very rapidly. A cablegram has just been received from Russia, asking for one of these great works; so highly are they prized by scientists all over the world.
