Mr. White sizes up the matter very aptly when he says: "There is nothing more annoying to passengers than having to wait at stations for trains," and his suggestion that trains be got away from the terminals in go'd time and every effort made to keep them on time is one that might be acted on to advantage in Ontario.

In a short secret session yesterday morning the Board of Control discussed the street railway agreement, which will be taken up to-morrow morning in regular session. Routine business was then disposed of. The Council will be asked to reconsider their attitude toward Canadian cement. The controllers desire to see a copy of the act which the Street Railway Company desire to have passed thru the legislature before giving necessary permission. Asphalt repairs will be advertised for in two sectional tenders. Mr. Defoe was granted his refund of $42.18 in his overcharge for water case. The City Solicitor advised that Holtby & Co. could not be held liable for withdrawing the tender for the Berkeleystreet fire house.

I have discovered the marvelous secret of life and vigor in men. To me it has been given to bring to the fallen, weary, wornout brothers the knowledge of this price; we was married here some years ago, and his wife is at present living in Montreal with relatives. Coyette lived with her boon, and even to the uttermost ends of the earth I send my message of love and proce and hope and help. Unbelievers nay scoff and cry "fake," but I heed them rot. My work has just begin and I am saving men.

The secret of this mighty having the seemed to be a more police have learned that Clement Coyette, the murder her work was married here some years ago, and his wife is at present living in Montreal with relatives. Coyette lived with her house on Pouparts street, in which Mann shot and killed his mother-in-law. The fact that the murder had taken place in the house seemed to be mother-in-law. The fact that the Provincial Government Securities rder had taken place in the house Canadian Municipal Securities and seemed to be an attractive argument, and Coyette took a delight in telling people where he lived. He has been parted from his wife for some years.
