A Poultry Market.

The Demand for Fowl Good and the Price Stiff.

The Market Square was a cold place this morning, and was not quite so well attended as the market of last Saturday. Both men and women were not there long when they commenced to hop from one foot to the other, and clap their hands to increase circulation. Nearly everyone was bundled up in mufflers and shawls, but fur mittens and capes were also numer-

The poultry supply was a particularly large one, but the chickens of-fered were not of so tempting an appearance as those of some previous days. Good, clean poultry will sell itself on this market every day in the week, but it must be clean. Chickens sold at from 35c to 50c per pair; turkeys brought 8c per pound, or all the way from 80c to $1 50. Some fine geese were offered at from 65c to Robt. Shaw-Wood Gave a Check the chickens, were not of the most presentable kind; some of them were plump and without a speck on them; these were bought up as soon as they were uncovered, and although the quality might not have been any better, or perhaps as good as the others, their fine appearance secured their

There was plenty of butter, 15c to 18c per pound for roll, and 14c to 16c for crock being the prices asked. The demand for butter this week has not been so great as last week, on account of the large purchases made last Saturday. Next Saturday will likely see 20c per pound for butter. Eggs seem to arrive in large numbers, and 16c to 18c per dozen be ing asked. On the meat market there was a fine showing of beef, lamb and mut-ton. Beef sold for 5 cents per pound for hindquarters, and 4 cents for forequarters. Lambs brought 6 1-2 cents by the carcass, and 7 to 8 cents for hind, and 6 to 7 cents for front quarters. Mutton sold at 5 cents by the carcass, or 4 and 5 cents by the quarter. Pork seemed to be in good demand, and its reported scarcity has put up the price. It brought $5 per 100 pounds, this morning, or 7 cents for front quarters, and 8 cents for hind.
