GANS IS STILL

side. The endurance and recuperathe Dane back.

rest at the corner always did him good, right to jaw. Not for a moment did stantly. He was warned to desist by saved him.

Nelson's Unmanly Tactics.

On several occasions Nelson appar- on Gans. ently had the advantage. He would the negro smashed him on the face right straight to the face. Nelson looked Although Goldfield is a mining camp, There was no disturbance of any kind and looks sure winner. and no rough language use.

Gans was the favorite with the peo-

"Teddy's" Son Was There.

Gans had $2,000 in bills in his hands his punishment.

to bet Nelson at any odds the latter 'I don't want any tape, anyway," Nelson's arms were bound with white Announcer Sullivan addressed the

and the crowd cheered.

audience. saying: "Ladies and Gentlemen. - The battle ship of the world. during or after the fight

"The club has sent a telegram President Roosevelt, but has received no reply, although the President's son s now at the ringside."

The announcement that voung with cheers, and someone yelled: "Show yourself and turn your face towards the moving pictures."

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Details of the Battle In Which Nelson Was Beaten.

Round 1-Gans led off with two light lefts for the face and they clinched. Nelson received a right on the body and Gans quickly shot a right and 'left to the face. He followed it with a right to the face and Nelson sent three left swings for the jaw. Gans in a mix-up straight left to the face. "Stay with shot his right twice to the face and outboxed his man at every point of the game. Gans jarred Nelson with two Theorem in discussions of the same of the control of the game. The face and straight left to the face. "Stay with him, don't left him get away," was the land Siler grabbed Nelson by the head. The men rushed together and Siler grabbed Nelson by the head. The men rushed together and siler grabbed Nelson by the head. The men rushed together and siler grabbed Nelson by the head. rights to the jaw and followed with left to the face. After breaking from a left to the face. After breaking from a clinch Nelson walloped his right to the lefts to the face. Nelson bored in and jaw and Nelson landed several times to paw and followed with left to the same whipped his right and left to the the body. An exchange followed, both face with trip-hammer rights and lefts from Gans' mouth in a stream with a pushed Gans almost to the ropes and to the face and jaw, and kept this up succession of lefts and rights to the then missed a left for the face. In a until the gong rang. Gans went to member. A terrific mix-up resulted at clinch Nelson landed a severe left uphis corner with a big lead. Blood flow- close quarters. Both men fought with percut to the jaw and they mixed. ed from Nelson's ears as he went to fearful pace, Nelson having the best of Gans put right and left to the jaw.

son the aggressor. Gans uppercut twice shade the best of this round. with right and then jarred Nelson with two terrific punches to the jaw. He followed it with a straight right to the good lead and outboxed and outgener- this round. aled his man throughout.

Nelson's Swings Wild.

Round 3-Nelson tried to get close, at close range Gans swung right and held out his hand and assisted him to again leaned shoulder to shoulder and over the eyes. Gans hooked a wicked hostilities. Gans rested himself and straight left to face. Several of Nel- the leading. They fought breast to son's swings went wild. They went breast like two bulls and Nelson butbut he never gives ground and seems to rang. Gans had a slight lead of a tame thrive on Gans' punishment. It was round. Siler said he thought Gans was smile on his face. Nelson had a shade a shade the better of the round.

Round 4-Nelson missed left for body. Nelson charges Gans, but his blows invariably fall short. Nelson fell into a clinch. Gans worked right and left to

Dane Badly Punished.

close quarters. Nelson swung right tive powers shown by Nelson were ex- to the ear, forcing Gans about the ring. to head. Nelson smashed Gans' body jaw. Nelson then missed two vicious Time and again Gans Nelson drove right to kidneys, but the would joit him on the jaw, sending black man rocked Nelson's head with a series of rights and lefts. Nelson swung His knees would bend and his eyes back wildly and Gans smashed Nelson's become glazed, but he always fell into sore nose with a terrific right drive. s clinch and held on and would then Gans brought blood afresh from Nelcome back fighting, as hard as ever, son's sore nose with stinging left In his peculiar style. The minute's punches. In a mix Gans uppercut with and he would come up fresh and Nelson break ground. He swung heavily Siler and the seconds yelled foul in unistrong. On nearly half a dozen occa- to Gans' face with left, but was rebuk- son. No attention was paid to the claim sions, when it seemed another blow ed by a stiff right to face. The gong and the men roughed it at close quarwould put the white boy out, the gong clanged and Nelson went to his corner ters, Nelson forcing Gans to the ropes. spitting blood. Nelson was badly pun- The men fought at such close quarters, hit Gans as they broke from a clinch three times with right and easily a bit shaky as he got to his feet and and the colored boy would hang on avoided Nelson's attempts to land. Nel- he immediately came to close quarters and wrestle.

Gans fought a remarkably clean fight. He was fair in everything, and twice, when he knocked Nelson down, picked him up. One time when one of Gans' punches knocked Nelson through the ropes, Gans picked him up and helped him to his feet. As the colored to y stood with his hands down, waitboy stood with his hands down, waiting for Nelson to steady himself, Nel-son gave him a vicious blow in the Nelson's head back, hammering his trying to land some vicious right stomach. Nelson was roundly hissed man almost at will. Nelson fought back swings. Gans whipped his right to the antagonist. Nelson was in bad shape the ring, Gans holding on. Nelson It is seldom that a more orderly when he took his chair. His face was scored with a stiff right to the face and trowd ever attended such a contest, cut into ribbons. Gans has big lead once more they leaned one against the but two left swings for the same place

Gans Jabs the Dane. ple. His behavior won the admiration Gans about the ring, Gans contenting ately resumed the wrestling tactics. In followed a clinch, emerging from which of the Goldfield people and they show- himself to watch for an opening. Gans a mix Nelson drove his right twice to Nelson upercut Gans on the jaw with The attendance was about 5,000, al- poked away at the face, with left and the face and right to the mouth at close left. Both men appeared tired at this though the estimates were made as right blows. Nelson missed two right quarters, sending Gans to his corner stage of the contest. high as 8,500. The Goldfield Athletic Swings and Gans met Nelson with a with blood streaming from his mouth. Club arrangements were perfect. There was not a hitch of any kind and the the face that staggered Nelson. Gans the mouth and they went to a clinch. fight could be seen from any portion received a slight punch on the body as Siler cautioned Nelson against hitting of the arena. About 200 women were they worked into a corner. Gans swung low. Nelson swung his right to the kidright twice to face and Nelson swung neys and they wrestled about the ring, the ropes and the latter working himneys and they wrestled about the ring, swings again and kept up a merciless uppercut to the mouth, and a moment mouth. Nelson missed a hard left Sullivan announced that the men hammering on his man's face. Bell rang later applied a similar punch. Gans afweighed in 1321/4 pounds each. Nolan and Nelson went to his corner with ter Nelson had twisted his arm sent contradicted this, saying that the blood streaming from mouth and nose. Nelson back with two hard short-arm He did not break ground throughout right jolts to the face and a moment avoiding Nelson's onslaughts, and met round ended with honors in Nelson's Nolan made more objections. He Nelson with right swing over kidneys. favor. claimed that Gans should have weigh-He then swung right and left to Nel-Round 18-Gans rushed in with son's face and found no trouble in get-straight right to face and Nelson ceived as the round terminated. About ting away from Nelson's swings. Gans swung two lefts to the negro's face. played with the Dane, sending a raking Siler warned Nelson about using his right to the jaw and then worked a left head. Gans blocked Nelson's left to the face. Nelson swung desperately severely, and the latter again bent for Gans' face, but seldom found the down. Nelson sent in two left swings black man's anatomy. They closed in, to the face, but Gans retaliated with ly afterward swung his left to the will be for the lightweight champion- mixing it roughly. Gans swung his right two swinging rights to the face. and left with fearful force and Nelson Wrestling continued and Gans drove jaw. Then they closed in and Nelson There are about 300 deputy sheriffs slipped to his knees. He got up quickly Nelson against the ropes with two drove Gans to the ropes with a left in this town to preserve order and be and Gans went at him like a demon right smashes to the face, Nelson near- hook to the face. The men wrestled on the lookeut for trouble. I warn and landed almost at will. The gong ly going to the floor. Gans backed to the center of the ring and Gans sent you all against jumping into the ring was a great relief to Nelson, as he ap-away and at the end of the round peared groggy when he fell into his Gans got in a good right punch to the tried to wrestle Gans to the ropes and

A Furious Mix-Up.

Round 9-They fought [shoulder to shoulder in the center of the ring. Gans walloped the Dane with right and left Roosevelt was at the ringside was to the face. Nelson tried desperately to work in two hard swings to the body and for his pains received wallops of the short-arm variety to the jaw. At close quarters Nelson swung his left work. Nelson continued to butt and twice on Gans' jaw and a moment later Siler stepped in and pulled Nelson from swung right to the same place. They mixed it furiously, Nelson getting four nunches to the other's one. Nelson swung right and left hard to Gans' jaw, but Gans more than evened matters, sending the Dane back with rapidfire rights and lefts to the jaw. Gans the bell rang. place. Gans then peppered Nelson's negro's jaw. Nelson then brought blood landing lefts to the chin. Nelson

Nelson Resorts To Butting.

Round 11-They close, with Gans Jaw. Neison seemed impervious to punishment and came in all the time.Gans measured his distanuce and time and again shot his short arm rights to the Battler's face. They went to close quarters and Gans uppercut Nelson he is the better man at this game. Nel- the eye. Nelson sent in two right body twice to the jaw. At close quarters he son started a stream of blood from punches, and at close range Gans and again spoke to Nelson about using chopped Nelson on the jaw again with Gans' mouth by two wicked uppercuts. hooked his left to the mouth. Then his head on the negro's chin. Again came chopped Nelson on the jaw again with Gans' mouth by two wicked uppercuts, hooked his left to the mouth. Then chopped Nelson on the jaw again with straight rights. Nelson fought him to a clinch and landed a terrific right to the face. In a mix-up Gans rocked Nelson's head with two wicked rights to the face and with two wicked rights to the face and followed it with a short-arm joil to ouncires. Nelson finally swung a light of the mouth. Then the almost interminable clinching and they stood off and Gans trimmed Nelson's westling. Finally Nelson swung a hard with two wicked rights to the face and a left to the jaw. Nelson's left eye is badly swollen and and followed it with a short-arm joil to ouncires. Nelson finally swung a light of Gans shot in straight left to face and with two straight lefts on the negro's chil. Again this head on the negro's chil. Again this head on the negro's chil. Again the lamost interminable clinching and they stood off and Gans trimmed Nelson's beautifully with straight to the jaw and quickly followed it with a short-arm joil to ouncire the face and a left to the mouth. Then they stood off and Gans trimmed Nelson's beautifully with straight to the jaw and quickly followed it with a short-arm joil to ouncire the face and a left to the jaw and quickly followed it with a short-arm joil to ouncire the face and a left to the jaw and place. Nelson's left eye is badly swollen and short children in the mouth. Then they stood off and Gans trimmed Nelson's left to the jaw and westling. Finally nelson swung a hard westling. Finally nelson swung a hard westling to the jaw and with two straight left to the mouth. Then they stood off and Gans trimmed Nelson's left to the jaw and westling the face. and followed it with a short-arm jolt to quarters. Nelson finally swung a light Gans shot in straight left to face and with two straight lefts on the jaw and followed it with a short-arm jolt to Polyon's sore eye. Gans the ear. As the gong rang Gans work- left to the mouth as the bell rang. If the gong rang. Gans had a shade the ed a hard left to the jaw. Gans had a anything Nelson had a slight lead in better.

Round 12-Nelson rushed on and they vantage, Gans getting Nelson away a straight right punch against Gans' and Gans whipped his right to ear. At from him, and whipped a stiff right to ribs and then wrestled Gans to the close quarters Gans uppercut twice the face. Nelson forced Gans against ropes. Mixing it, Gans worked in two with right to chin, and as they fought the ropes and slipped to the floor. Gans right uppercuts to the body. They left to head. Nelson got in a high right his feet, and they immediately renewed did little more than wrestle, Nelson right to the stomach and Nelson shot a seemed content to permit Nelson to do to a furious mix in the center of the ted Gans on the jaw with his head. ring, in which Gans drew blood from They bent low, head to head, in mon-Nelson's nose with a straight left. Nel- otonous fashion, each seeming to fight son got in good right to face as the according to the style best adapted to bell rang. Nelson is being outpointed, their peculiar different styles. The bell resting up.

Did Some Wrestling. face. Nelson went after Gans' body and swings to the face. At close quarters put two lefts to the face. At close bored in with his head, the black man Nelson uppercut with left and right to quarters Nelson put two good rights backing steadily away, but at the same the mouth and a moment later swung to the negro's heart, and then they time peppering his man with right and his left to the mouth, bringing blood wrestled. They broke away and Nelleft to the face. Nelson caught Gans a again from Gans' mouth. Both men son staggered Gans with a succession terrific swing to the jaw and then drove resorted to wrestling tactics, Gans be- of hard left and right swings to the Gans against the ropes, landing both ing the chief offender. They exchanged jaw. Gans did not respend and Nel-face, which he duplicated a moment worked his right and left several times rose to its feet at the end of the round later. Gans put a straight one to the to the jaw. They went to close quar-stomach and the bell rang. Nelson ters and Nelson worked in two left upbrought the great crowd to its feet as per cuts to the jaw that made the he went to his corner with a faint negro wince. The latter, however, had Gans, having received instructions from quarters, but few blows were landed his left and right to the face. Nelson in a shoulder-to-shoulder contest. Nel- smiled determinedly and gave Gans no Round 5—Gans shot a left to the nose son tried to find Gans' body with left chance to rest. He swung his left as Nelson rushed in and they went to close quarters. Nelson swung right sent Gans against the ropes with right with two wicked right uppercuts to the with a right. At the close of the round left uppercuts and they worked in close. Nelson kicked at Gans and the latter promptly retaliated in kind. The bel- and put in two lefts to the body before ligerents had to be separated by their handlers Round 15—Opens with a clinch and Nelson butted and elbowed Gans conished in this round. Betting now 2 to 1 or rather wrestled, that little execution could be accomplished. Nelson in a Round 6-Nelson rushed Gans, but breakaway was sent to the floor with desperately, but could not locate his jaw and Nelson wrestled Gans about pulled the negro after him. They were Round 7-As usual Nelson forced pushed back into the ring and immedi-Round 17-Nelson landed his left on wildly. Nelson neatly ducked two right during which Gans worked in a left self free sent his left to Nelson's later shot his right to the wind. Both Round 8—Gans had no trouble in men wrestled for some time and the Dane's face. The men did not hear Gans drove Nelson back with several round.

Referee Warns the Dane.

Round 19-Siler warned Nelson once more for butting and laid his hand on Nelson's head twice as a reminder that the Dane should cut out this kind of his reclining positing. The men remained in a locked position Gans resting and Bat wrestling. Finally Gans sent Nelson back with right and left folts to the jaw, staggering Nelson. Just before the gong rang Gans sent in a left and two stiff rights to the was bleeding lightly in the mouth after head. There was more wrestling than jaw and Nelson put in a right on the fighting in this round and several derogatory comments were passed.

a heart-breaking rally. Men bled from He followed his advantage and sent a Round 2—Both were up quickly—Nel- the mouth and the ears. Nelson had a volley of right and left swings to the again rested, permitting the younger man on the aggressor. Gans uppercut twice shade the best of this round. jaw as the round closed.

Trimmed By the Negro.

Round 21-Nelson came up as though

Round 22-Gans sent straight left to the face and Nelson retaliated with a brought relief to Nelson and saved him left hook to the stomach. Nelson drove from almost sure defeat. fought shoulder to shoulder for an ad- left hook to the stomach. Nelson drove pushing Gans almost through the ropes. Finally Gans rushed Nelson away and smashed him twice with his right to the jaw. He followed this with a two lefts to the Dane's head simultaneously with the gong. This was the only time during the round that the men had fought and Gans had the ad-

then crossed with his right to the Round 13-Nelson rushed in and sent jaw. Then Nelson drove his left twice Gans back with two left and right to the eyes after the colored man had hands to the head. Nelson bleeding right swings to the face in the center son sent the crowd into a frenzy by from nose, kept after Gans, but this of the ring and clinched. They again driving Gans to his corner with a time Gans shot a straight right to the fought breast to breast and Gans right hook to the body. The crowd Round 24-Nelson went right after his corner to go in. They roughed it Round 14—Both men fought to close and at close quarters Nelson swung Nelson drove Gans back to the ropes Gans clinched. They both missed left swings, and a rally followed, Gans landing repeatedly on Nelson's face. Nelson had a shade the better of this

A Vicious Round.

Round 25-Nelson rushed and swung his right to the ear. They fought and wrestled at close quarters. Nelson, breaking away, sent left to stomach and then drove his right to the jaw. Nelson then sent two short-arm jolts to the face and a moment later whipped a left to the face. Nelson rocked the negro's head with right and left to the jaw. He followed this with two rights and a left to the jaw. Gans awoke and more than evened up matters by hammering victously Nelson's face with right and left punches. They were close and just before the beli rang Gans shot his left to the face Gans was a hit worsted earlier in the round, but had the better of the closing rally. Round 26-Nelson forced Gans to the ropes, but could not penetrate Gans' marvelous defense while in dangerous positions. They wrestled again about landed a hard right swing on the head, other. Gans wrestled Nelson clear went glimmering. Then the fighters through the ropes and in falling Nelson sparred, and Gans landed a left swing over the mouth and followed it with Honors Even in This.

Round 27-Gans starred while Nelson wasted als vitality with useless swings. Nelson pushed Gans against swing and in a mix Gans put in two light rights to the face. Nelson retaliated with two straight lefts to the face, the last one sending Gans' head back. Gans then drove his left to the stomach with terrific force and drove right and left to the faw. Nelson. maddened, fought back viciously and gave the negro more than he had reeven, with both men tired.

Round 28-Gans jabbed Nelson on the mouth with the left, and Nelson butput left and right to the jaw and shortstomach and right and left to the two right swings to the face. Nelson the gong ring, and were pulled to their fearful clouts to the jaw, the first of seats by their seconds. It was a tame which sent Nelson to the center of the ring, half way across. Gans kept at his man, who was groggy, and the bell clanged and was welcomed as he went to his corner.

Round 29-Nefson rushed to close quarters, apparently as strong as ever. He followed Gans about the ring, but failed to land. The men wrestled and Jaw. roughed it in the center of the ring and exchanged right swings to the jaw. Gans then cut loose and mercilessly peppered Nelson's face with left and right jolts. Nelson merely shook his head and wrestled the black man to the ropes. Gans was against the ropes as the bell sounded. Gans'

Gans' Great Generalship.

Round 30-They fell against each other Round 30—They felt against each other and Siler again warned Nelson to cease fighting with his head. They then fought at close quarters, Nelson doing all the work. Gans then put in two right uppercuts and then stalled and rested, apparently with a view to saving his strength. ently with a view to saving his strength.
ently with a view to saving his strength.
It is in this manner that Gans displays his great generalship. Gans then put in a right uppercut to Nelson's mouth and the Dane missed several victous left and the Dane Mark the jaw. As the bell swings for the jaw. As the right swings for the jaw it Gans and the crowd went to its feet in a storm of protest. Somebody started three cheers for the negro, which drew forth a rousing response.
Round 31—Gans cleverly blocked Nelson's attempts to land wild swings, and to do all the work. Again Siler told Nelson to quit butting in, and they went to close quarters, wrestling and stalling.

The men wrestled for fully a minute without a blow being struck. Gans sent Round 32—Gans danced away from the Dane's leads and as usual closed in mostly on Nelson's initiative. Siler again three rights to Nelson's sore eye. Gans caught Nelson a terrific clip on the jaw with a right hand hook, and then sent in a dazing left to the face. Again the gong

Nelson's Face Like Jelly.

Round 33-They closed in Nelson but-ting with his head. Gans peppered Nel-Round 42—Gans started the round with son's face to a jelly with terrific right swings. Nelson's left eye was entirely closed. Nelson punched Gans to the ropes, and they fought at close range, Gans resting and saving his strength. Nelson bled profusely as the men worked to the center of the ring. It was a sight to behold. Gans sent Nelson back with a left to the jaw. Both men were very weak as the gong rang. Nelson often-times showed great weakness. Gans low, and the colored man slowly sank to the floor. The blow which imports meat or meat products. Another fact revealed today is that after Oct. 1 the only preservatives permitted will be salt, saltpeter, sugar and vinegar.

"If I had only known at the is construed correctly by Ir. Wilson it means a tariff war of retaliation upon the the death I would have taken may old home in Bloomfield, but would have taken to make the death I would have taken may old home in Bloomfield, but which imports meat or meat products. Another fact revealed today is that after Oct. 1 the only preservatives permitted will be salt, saltpeter, sugar and vinegar.

NO PERSON should go from home without a bettle of Dr. I. D. Kellogger. weak as the gong rang. Nelson orten-times showed great weakness. Gans' round. It was claimed that Gans had turned his foot in this round, which may seriously incapacitate him for the re-men had fought and Gans had the advantage.

Crowd in a Frenzy.

Round 23—They rushed to a clinch and Siler warned Nelson constantly about boring in with his right to the crossed with his right to the seriously incapacitate him for the remainder of the contest.

Round 34—The men wrestled and stalled in the center of the ring, both seeming content to rest up. This thing continued, neither landing a blow. It was wrestle, stall, wrestle and stall again. Nelson forced Gans to the ropes and received right and left swings on the head. Nelson worked in two short arm lefts.

right and left swings on the head. Nelson worked in two short-arm lefts to the stomach and both men wrestled. Gans nearly put Nelson through the ropes. Nelson appeared very tired. Joe was the fresher of the two, as the round ended the wrestling match.

Round 35—The sun is going down. It is the same old story, wrestle, skall and rest without a blow being struck. Gans finally ripped in a straight left to the jaw, and again they rested each other's head against one another's shoulder. Gans put in a right uppercot that lacked force, and they went quickly to a clinch. Both men tettered about the ring, not landing a blow. Nelson at close quarters worked

SMALLMAN & INGRAM

Fine and cool.

THE SATISFACTORY STORE

White Flannelette Gowns

New Lot Ready for You

They come from a maker who really seems to know just what a woman desires.

Carefully made to the smallest detail. Flannelette is of very good quality. Very neat in appearance—neater than you might think necessary for a nightgown.

Prettily embroidered with white, pink and blue silk, with trimmings of self and lace, 90c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.35 WHITEWEAR-2nd FLOOR.

Here's Exceptional Value in Chiffon Taffeta Silk

Just think of being able to buy real Chiffon Taffeta Silk for fifty cents a yard. That's decidedly exceptional value, isn't it? Have these real Chiffon Taffeta Silks in four shades-cream, white, navy and brown, Don't confuse them with the ordinary taffetas. They are much superior. Have a very rich appearance, softer finish, do not crack or split like ordinary taffetas. Return a much longer amount of wear.

Make very handsome dresses, and are eminently suitable for underskirts or linings. Ask to see them the next time you're in the store—the earlier the better.

SILKS-MAIN FLOOR.

And remember, they're very special values at.....

Where Will You Buy the New Fall Dress Fabrics?

That question should receive this answer -at Smallman & Ingram's.

It's to your advantage in every way to purchase them here.

We buy our goods direct from the best makers. You get the very latest styles they are showing. And we share with you the advantages gained by eliminating the middleman's profit.

Farthermore, we have set a high standard of excellence for our Dress Goods. If fabrics, no matter how stylish in appearance, fail to measure up to this qualitystandard, we ignore them when placing our

Today, we ask the attention of the young ladies to a few of the many lines of goods bought for their especial benefit.

Fancy Plaids For Young Ladies' Dresses

Brown, purple, mulberry, olive and navy plaid designs. Unusually smart and effective. Also a brown and black plaid that will win your admiration. Light in weight, fine, smooth surface. Every thread wool. 44 inches wide.....

And here are some smart Tweeds. Brown, black, blue and green mixtures. Broken checked patterns. All wool. 44 inches wide.....

Young girls! do you want something nice for school wear? Ask us to show you these green and black plaids, crossbarred with single knotted threads. Mothers! these are bound to give good satisfaction, wear long—they're all wool, 44 inches 65c

DRESS GOODS-MAIN FLOOR.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM.

149, 151, 153 and 155 Dundas Street

two left short-arm blows to the face, and the bell closed a tiresome round. To the Ropes Again.

started something with a straight right to the face. Again the wrestling is on. Nelson missed a forceful uppercut, intended for the law, and for a brief moment i looked as if the men were going to fight but such was not the case. Gans cleve ducked right swings, and then ran in right hook over the heart. Nolson hooked a left to the stomach, and a close quar-ters Nelson got his right lightly to the jaw. Nelson pushed Gans against the ropes, and Gans just did step out of the way of a right uppercut.

Round 37—Nelson was again told to stop fighting with his head. Gans vigorously objected to Siler against this style of scrapping. The men again went to wrestling, and Nelson swung his left for the jaw, missing by three feet. They clinched again, and a few attempts to strike a blow were made. Then Gans sent a powerful left to the wind and they clinched. Both men were careful, wakened up the crowd by catching Nelson within long distance, and putting in sev-eral straight lefts to the face. Then came the rest.

Round 38-Nelson rushed in and Gans backed up quickly, trying to keep the Dane at a distance and force him to spar at long range. Gans complained to Siler about Nelson resting his head on his (Gans') chin and shoulders. Nelson swung a left to the jaw, and after a clinch Gans put in two rights to the Dane's face. Both men were leg weary and stalled, clinching as much as they could be weared as the country of the stalled of the s could. It was next to impossible to get the Dane to fight at long range. Gans Dane's Optic Closed. Round 39—Gans jabbed his left twice to the face before Nelson got to close quarters. Then followed stalling and wrest-ling, which was broken up by Gans punching Nelson victously over the heart straight rights to the face, and again it looked as if the deadlock would be broken. However, the men resumed stalling, Nel-son being the chief offender. Nelson sent in a hard left to the jaw, and Gans came back with two lefts to the jaw. Nelson's left eye is closed entirely.

Round 40—They started in at a lively pace, Gans landing his left to the ear, they stopped. In a clinch Gans drove his left to the jaw. Nelson came back with a left uppercut to the chin. The public was excluded from the meeting.

This leaves Mrs. Brooks in a of trouble as to where the bones favorite will rest.

She will continue her search better spot to bury the remains.

She assigned as a reason for her men did little fighting. Gans got Neison at arm's length, and sent his left twice to the Dane's face. Gans complained again about Nelson, and sent Nelson's head now in this country, such as meat proback with a left uppercut to the jaw.
Round 41—They came up slowly Round 41—They came up slowly and clinched. Gans asked Billy Nolan facetiously, 'What time is it?'' Then they resumed clinching. Gans shot a straight right to the mouth, and Nelson rebuked the packers that after Oct. I no foreign meats or meat products can be thin with two lefts to the stomach. Nelson rebuked the packers that after Oct. I no foreign meats or meat products can be stop it she could not. him with two lefts to the stomach. Nelson landed a hard left hook to the jaw, and Gans fought him away, landing two lefts to the face and right on body. Both men wrestled wearily, both seeming exhausted.

Round 42-Gans started the round with a straight left to the face, and they is construed correctly by Mr. Wilson her death I would have taken her to clinched. As they broke Nelson deliber-

NO PERSON should go from home without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial in their possession, as change of water, cooking, climate, etc., frequently brings on summer complaint and there is nothing like being ready with a sure remedy at hand, which oftentimes saves great suffering and frequently valuable lives. This Cordial has gained for itself a widespread reputation for afford-ing prompt relief from all summer com-

Purity, Brilliancy and Uniformity Found in

MAY BE TARIFF WAR

If Canadian Beef Is Barred by New It Costs Mistress Two Plunks to United States Law.

of the packers, the secretary of agricul- with the same respect that a human is ture, Dr. Melvin, and some other Gov- biried, has been refused a permit to ernment experts, who gathered to talk bury her pet at Highland Lawn Cemeover the effect of meat inspection and tery. pure food laws, with a view of hitting of trouble as to where the bones of her

One of the questions brought up was She assigned as a reason for her de ducts, gelatine, frankfurters, etc., and grave as often as she wishes. ducts, gelatine, frankfurters, etc., and meats which are yet to be imported.

Secretary Wilson is said to have told the wall of her home began to move the existing law. This statement pleased the packers This statement pleased the packers spot.

immensely, as it means exclusion of foreign meats. However, if the law "If I had only known at the time on Another fact revealed today is that "So I buried her out on the Shields after Oct. 1 the only reservatives farm, so far away that it cost me $2 permitted will be salt, saltpeter, sugar to make the trip, and this cost me so

The packers are in fine feather, body. meat products can be brought in. This Highland Cemetery. will necessitate a discussion of tariffs Congress is supreme.

tary's ruling, the alternative would be Skimmer Horn any longer.' that Canada would permit American officials to inspect the meat before ship-

ALAS, AND AGAIN ALAS

Visit Doggy's Grave,

Washington, Sept. 1.—What is said Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 2.—Mrs. to be a secret of world-wide importance Josephine Brooks, who came into pubwas discussed yesterday at a meeting lic notice a few weeks ago by the burial of her pet poodle. Skimmer Horn

She will continue her search for a brought into the United States under stop it she could not. She took this to mean that Skimmer Horn was not satisfied with the chosen it means a tariff war of retaliation upon my old home in Bloomfield, but I was the United States by every nation so grieved and worked up that I did much that I am compelled to move her and will remain so until some way is "They tell me that I could bury her found by which foreign meat and at Clover Hill, just across from the

"There are several Terre Haute dogs and treaties, but it is alleged that even buried there, but there's a large dog if there are treaties which conflict with near by which I fear so much that I the meat inspection law the act of would not care to visit the grave there. "I cannot say what I will do but I It is pointed out that if Canadian must do something, for I cannot stand beef cannot come in under the secre- it to stay away from the grave of ment and affix the American tags. It is the most popular of all forms of medicine, and of pills the most popular are is said Great Britain has had an inkling of the view of the law taken to-day by the secretary of agriculture, and that an agent of the maker of tags has and portable, they are easily taken, gone to England to furnish the needed do not nauseate nor gripe, and they give bits of tin.