TWELVE LONDON PLAYERS ATTEND FIRST WORKOUT

Ben Gilbert of Philadelphia Reported to Manager Keenan Last Night—London Players Will Practice at Tecumseh Park This Afternoon—Merlin Copp and Jim McAvoy Send Messages to Keenan.

Twelve London baseball players turned out to the first workout held at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. The weather was fine, and the players were put through a stiff practice by Manager Keenan. The infielders showed up well.

R. Hansen, the new player who was secured from Manager George Gibson of the Toronto Leafs, pitched good ball, and Frank Ross, who came from Woodville, put in a busy day catching. Batting practice was held, and the boys took great pleasure in pounding the ball.

Owing to the infield not being ready, the players were forced to train in one corner of the park, but it is expected that the diamond will be ready soon for the men to get out.

BRANTFORD PLAYERS HOLD A WORKOUT

"Knotty" Lee's Team Will Be Completed Shortly.

BRANTFORD, April 29.—Manager "Knotty" Lee had a squad of six players at practice today. Palmer, Tyson and Smith, of New York; Kennedy and Sullivan of Lawrence, who arrived this morning, were taken out to the ball park this afternoon for a light workout. The Brantford roster will not be completed until the end of the week. Manager Lee announced tonight that

HAS-BEENS SECURED EIGHTY-POINT LEAD ON THE NATIONALS

First Three Games of Championship Series Played Last Evening.

The Has-Beens secured an 80-point lead on the Nationals in the first three games of the final series for the City Bowling League championship at the National alleys last evening. The winners were in good form and surprised the large crowd of spectators by the outcome.

C. Taylor, of the Has-Beens, had the highest score for the three consecutive games, which was 567. George Karrys was next in line with 547 points.

The Has-Beens are the winners of the first series and the Nationals captured the honor in the second. The remaining three games of the final series will be played at the National alleys Thursday evening.

George Karrys, of the Nationals, thinks that his group of players will be able to overcome the lead which the Has-Beens ran up last night.

MICHIGAN-ONTARIO LEAGUE MAGNATES MEET NEXT SUNDAY

DETROIT, April 29.—Calls for the final meeting of the Michigan-Ontario League magnates, preparatory to the start of the season, will name Sunday next, May 4, as the time, the place necessarily must be Detroit, that having been decided at the last meeting of the league. The session will be held at the Elk Temple, which is convenient to all of the hotels. An invitation has been extended to the league, through its president, to make the temple will go into action with a balance in its treasury on its first assessment. Reports from around the circuit are that great enthusiasm prevails and the owners will be big affairs. Plans for special entertainments will be discussed by the magnates at the assemblage.

INTERNATIONAL OPENS THE SEASON TODAY

League Has Three New Managers—One New City.

Toronto, April 30.—With a new president, three new managers and one new city—Reading—the International Baseball League will open their season of play tomorrow with games in the eastern section of the circuit. The league has a very stormy passage for the last three years, but the magnates are determined to see daylight. The circuit will be permissive in three cities for the first time, it is expected. The league has a new president, George Gibson of the Leafs, "Red" Down of the Leafs, and Frank Schutte of the Leafs. They are three pilots who are making their mark in the circuit. The league has a new manager, Frank Schutte of the Leafs, who has been in the league for several years ago. Jack Dunn is a fixture at Baltimore, and Arthur Irwin is enjoying a new lease of life at Rochester, while George Wiltse is at Buffalo.

MEDS '22 TAKE OPENING GAME FROM CLASS '23

Western "U" Teams Stage Games at Queen's Park.

Class '22 Western University Meds defeated Class '23 Meds in an exciting game of baseball staged at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon. The final score being 15 to 5. Leach, who pitched excellent ball for the winners, and he was later relieved by Mace, who showed great relief. Leach started for Class '23, but he gave way to Young, who pitched a game. Feature plays were a slide home by Douglas, upsetting McLeod, and a sensational catch by Smith in centre field. McLeod on the losing team had a great day at bat, scoring three runs for his team, while Simpson and Cline were the heavy hitters for the victors. The losing team has challenged the winners to a return game, and it will likely take place next week, when the best players will be selected to operate on the team selected from the remaining clubs of the medical school at Springbank, on the university field May 27 next.

Following the Meds game yesterday, a team from the collegiate institute defeated at the park, the final score being 15 to 10. This game was a burlesque, with lots of clowning, and heavy hitting very predominant.
