BALL PLAYERS

HELPING UNCLE body says the baseball players fer the war, let him come out and be taught the error of his opinions. Jimmy Arches, catcher, and Jimmy Sheckard of the Cubs-are the busiest pair of baseball players in any league these days. They are both up at the United States Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill, teaching the recruits how to play baseball. The arrangements for this instruction were made between President Chas. H. Weeghman of the Chicago National Lague Club and the commandant of the training station. Manager Mitchell will, therefore, have to worry along without his able assistant, Jimmy Sheckard, for a while at least. et helping Uncle Sam get in trim
