DRILLING PROCEEDS AT DAVIDSON MINE

Drill to Tap Ore Body Below Present Workings.

Diamond drilling operations, which were commenced on the Davidson property in Porcupine two weeks ago, are making substantial progress. Two shifts have been working daily from the 300-foot level, the drill pointing so as to tap the ore body below the present workings. At this date the drill has reached a depth of about 100 feet and is making progress at the rate of about 20 feet per day. The ground gone thru is highly mineralized, and a number of small stringers of good-looking quartz have already been cut. The raise, which is being cut from the 200-foot level to the 100-foot level, has advanced to the extent of 38 feet, and has disclosed an interesting series of faults in the mine, which caused more or less displacement of the ore. The knowledge gained thru this work will undoubtedly be of material assistance in the further development of the property.

THE MINING MARKET.

R. E. Kemerer in his weekly market letter has the following:

The mining market, particularly the Porcupine and Cobalt section of the list, has had a tendency to drag, this situation being caused by the fear, in certain quarters, of further labor troubles in the camps. There is a great diversity of opinion on this subject, even among those best in a position to judge conditions, but summing up all available opinions, the balance of weight would seem to rest with those who anticipate a peaceful settlement of the difficulty. It is pointed out, with good reason, that the very large numbers of Austrians and Bulgarians who are employed in the camps of the north could have nothing to look for in the event of a strike save immediate internment. The native born workers of the camps have all brought their families on and are paying for their homes and are, on that account, greatly averse to facing an indefinite period of unemployment. On the other hand, the mine operators are practically a unit in refusal to recognize the western federation and, in one or two instances, a temporary closing down of the mines would permit of companies completing certain improvements and extensions to their mills, and in these particular instances such closing would not be entirely unwelcome. In any event, however, a careful consideration of the whole of the Porcupine and Cobalt market leads to the conclusion that even in the very doubtful event of a strike the decline in prices has fully discounted the situation. When there is so marked a difference in the market price and the intrinsic value of stocks even adverse news can have but a very temporary effect upon prices. The market appears to us to be on the bottom, and we believe that the next movement of any importance will be an advance.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winnipeg, April 20.—Wheat closed 1c down for May, 1⅜c down for July and ¼c down for October on the local exchange today. Oats dropped ¼c in May and July and 1⅜c in October. Barley was unchanged. Flax dropped 3c in May and 2¾c in July.

Conflicting rumors regarding the suspending of future trading added to the generally wild conditions of the market. Erratic fluctuations, nervous and sensitive sentiment helped to curtail the pit business. The local crowd were inclined to sell short and liquidate, but much of the wheat offered was absorbed by the government interests. Prices moved like a feather in the cross-currents of a contrary wind.

The cash trade was fair, tho offerings were very light. The government was out of the market in the morning, but came in when prices went down. Top grades were a shade better, with low grades shaky. Oats were in good demand, with spreads from unchanged to ½c better. Barley was fair.

GREAT ABSORPTIVE POWER IN MINES

Another Wave of Liquidation Occurred—Recessions Comparatively Small.

Liquidation such as the local mining market has not seen in a long time was the feature of yesterday's trading, but tho price recessions occurred it was remarkable to what limits these were confined.

Transactions for the day amounted to over 380,000 shares, which rivals some of the big days last fall, when the last bull market was in full swing.

A vicious drive was made on West Dome, but tho 100,000 shares of the stock were dumped on the market it was all well absorbed and the close was just 1-2 point below the opening at 22. This is a remarkable performance for an ystock in the present situation and gives an inkling as to the technical strength underlying the market.

It was much the same story all down the list, but on a smaller scale. Eighty thousand shares of Apex were placed on the market, causing a recession to 6 3-4, only a loss of 1-2 point from the opening.

McIntyre suffered most, being heavily sold and slumping back to 161, with the close one point higher. Hollinger yielded a little ground to $5.05, while Dome on the other hand advanced to $14.37 1-2.

Dome Extension eased off a fraction to 17 3-4, Dome Lake lost 1-2 point from the opening price at 18 1-2. Thompson-Krist was liquidated to the extent of 30,000 shares with an accompanying loss in price of only 1 point.

On the whole the most significant feature of the proceedings was the absorptive power shown by the market. Stocks have been on the down grade for weeks past and the present all round break has unquestionably carried prices in most cases considerably below intrinsic values. Shrewd trades are apparently taking advantage of the situation to buy up stocks at bargain counter figures.

The market is heavily over-sold, just how much will become apparent when the inevitable turn occurs. When that time comes unwary shorts will find a bare market.

In the silver stocks Timiskaming was a weak spot, dropping still further to 41. Beaver was firmer than Timiskaming, yielding only 1-2 point to 35 1-2. The rest of the silver list was not so greatly affected as the gold stocks. Hargraves lost a point, going back to 15, Chambers-Ferland went off to 10, but recovered to 10 3-4. Bailey eased off 1-2 to 3 1-2.

DEVELOPMENT WORK AT NEWRAY PROGRESSES

Expect to Pick Up Second Vein in Short Time.

Newray is making rapid progress in the extensive development campaign under way on the 400-foot level, and word is expected daily of the picking up of the Helena vein, which was the second lead proven to lie across the path of the crosscut at this depth. This crosscut was in 450 feet from the shaft two days ago, and according to diamond drilling indications the Helena should be intersected at a distance of about 500 feet, so that 50 feet more work should bring the ore body into sight. On the surface this carried very high gold values, and a number of beautiful ore specimens were recovered in the test pits. As a matter of fact it has always been maintained that when picked up at depth the vein would prove of greater value than the Anchor.

A report made on the Newray several months ago stated that progress should be made in the underground workings at the rate of about 225 feet per month, and on this basis the long crosscut should intersect the Hanson vein within from two to three months' time, as this was located on the surface approximately 1000 feet to the northeast of the shaft.

GOOD PROGRESS BY GOLD REEFS COMPANY

Preparing to Ship High Grade for Treatment.

The Gold Reefs Mining company have just received a report dated April 15th from Mr. Wright, the manager at the mine. The work has been carried on underground since last fall on a high-grade vein, and quite a large amount of ore stoped out. A clean-up will be made on this in May, and he states that only the high-grade will be shipped and the $10 and $12 ore will be reserved on the property for treatment there.

Another fine quartz vein has lately been discovered high in sulphides some five feet wide. The company expects to receive samples from both veins in a few days.

This property is now being well handled; has a small capital and is in good financial condition, and no doubt after the clean-up in May something good may be looked for.

LIST WAS HEAVY.

Heron and Co. report:

Montreal, April 20.—The local market opened heavy with a few stocks showing a further decline. The passing of Brazilian dividend which had been expected for some time brought about last night's closing prices. Scotia was again under pressure, selling down to 90, with little recovery. Steel of Canada and Dominion Iron also showed a decline on very little trading. The general list was heavy with most of the stocks closing down from last night's prices.
