TWO GAMES BACK OFF ORIOLES NOW

Birds Pounced on Bader for Commanding Lead Early and Won.

BENTLEY BAFFLED

Kept the Leafs Well in Hand at All Times—The Game.

The Leafs slipped up in their penultimate drive yesterday. Bader tried the trick once too often against the Birds, and the Duncans piled up a four-run lead before he was derided. The final count was six to two and now the Leafs are two full games behind the Orioles and the chance of taking the league lead before the Dunn flock fitted from our fair city is gone.

The Baltimore outfit were very much there yesterday. They pounded the pill often and timely and were always the best. Bill Holden, the ex-Leaf, was a battling fool with a homer, inside the grounds, and three singles in three tries. Jacobson picked off four batters in five efforts. Kauff was the chief Toronto swatter with a double and two singles. He scored the two local runs.

Bentley, the clouting first-sacker and once-a-week flinger, did mound duty for Dunn and turned in a grand performance, not easing up until he had a commanding lead. Bill Riley was the fielding hero with a rolling over stunt in right and coming up with Lawry's short fly in the seventh. Duffy tried all kinds of tricks to get the needed bingles. He pressed down pinch-hitters into service, but only one, Snyder, came thru.

Bader started poorly as usual and the Birds punched him for three hits and a pair of scores in the opening inning. After Maize rolled out, Lawry bounded a safety to second and Jacobson cut a hit to right. Bentley fouled out, but smashes by Holden and Boley sent over two runs.

Lawry opened the third with a hit and after the next two skied to White-man, Holden drove a line drive over Whitey's head. The ball went to the fence in deep left-centre for the circuit and two runs.

The third pair of tallies were brushed over with Ryan getting the pitching for the Leafs. Bader retired in the third for a pinch-hitter and Ryan finished in the box. The trouble started over a walk to Lawry. Jacobson bunted towards third and best in out. Bentley bunted towards third and lived when nobody fielded it. Holden scored one with a scratch hit to short and Lawry was run down between third and home. Boley's infield out let the sixth and last Bird run over.

Bentley refused the Leafs a hit for three innings. Kauff got the first one, a double, in the fourth and rode home on Blackburn's drive to centre. Kauff beat a punt in the sixth and Riley supplied the hit to score him.

Whiteman started the seventh with a double, but nobody could drive him the rest of the journey. Snyder, batting for Ryan in the ninth, pried off a hit but it was useless.
