Patrolman Nelson ejected a pigheaded individual from O'Neill's saloon, on Main street, last night.

Notice—The members of No. 3 Battery, 3rd Regt. C. G. A., who can attend the school of instruction to be started Feb. 15th, will meet at the armory, Port Hope, to receive clothing tonight at 7.45 p. m.

Donaldson Line steamship Parthenia, which sailed from this port last Sunday took away a cargo valued at $246,251.

Among her cargo was 120,000 bushels of wheat, 13,223 bags flour and 300 head of cattle.

York J. O. L. No. 3, and members of sisters lodges in the city, will pay a fraternal visit to Wills L. O. L. No. 78, in Fairville, on Tuesday evening next, when a pleasant entertainment is expected.

There will be excellent outdoor skating on the Every Day Club grounds all day tomorrow. The "rent" there left the grounds covered with a good sheet of ice, that only needed a little water to make a fine field for skating.

W. Kenneth Dawson, son of W. S. Dawson, will leave this evening on the Montreal express for Arrowhead, B. C., where he has accepted a position with the Arrow Lakes Lumber Co. Mr. Dawson was formerly employed with the Dalhousie Lumber Co., and with T. McAvity & Sons.

The committee of City Hall improvements will meet this afternoon. The proposition to purchase the Masonic Building is still of the opinion expressed on many occasions that a new and modern building should be erected on the Market Square.

There will be a very interesting time at the Every Day Club this evening. Last summer Turner B. Howard offered a very handsome hat rack to the club member making the most points at the various sports on the club grounds. A. W. Covey was the winner, and the presentation will be made in the club room this evening.

There will also be a good musical programme. All men are welcome.

ACCIDENTS YESTERDAYSix of them Were Reported and Some Were Quite Serious

The list of accidents in the city yesterday totaled six, all of which were more or less serious.

On Main street, near Portland street, yesterday afternoon an aged man fell on the icy sidewalk and sustained a severe cut on the back of the head. He was taken into Travers' drug store where the cut was dressed and shortly after he was able to proceed to his home.

Mrs. Garrison, of Sydney street, was run down by a small boy coasting on a car, marthen street hill. She received a bad shaking up and was somewhat bruised.

Thomas Wilson, of Sheriff street, injured his leg while coasting on the street on which he lives.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon the 9-year-old son of Frank T. Murphy was knocked down and run over by a team owned by Dr. McIntyre. He was playing in front of his home on Adelaide street.

He ran in front of the approaching team, and before the driver noticed him he was under the horse's feet. It was found, however, that beyond a shaking up he was unharmed.

Last night Miss Scott, and Miss Anderson, coasting on Queen street, building with a telephone pole with the result that Miss Anderson sustained severe injuries to her face.

The post office officials are already handling the advance bundles of these missives.

TAG! YOU'RE ITWorkers for the Free Kindergarten Will Hit the Trail Tomorrow to Raise $1,000—*Watch for Them and Pay up

Walk up and be tagged.

Place whatever sum you feel inclined to give to the Free Kindergarten in an easily available pocket, then go forth and smilingly hand it to the first pair of young women you meet, who are equipped with the necessary bank and bundle of tags. Submit to the operation of being "tagged" and wear the tag all day. In this way you will secure immunity from a second levy.

If, however, the tagging process pleases you, you feel a glow of satisfaction at the knowledge that you have contributed your mite to a good cause, why not tag again.

In this game there is no limit and the only rule necessary to play it properly is the old and familiar one—do not ring the young women's heads with a tag, reply with a dollar. In this way the best results may be obtained.

Tomorrow is tag day for the Free Kindergarten, and members of the Association with a corps of energetic helpers are going out for the money. They hope to realize $1,000 on the day, and there is little doubt that this hope will be realized.

The success of the work depends upon the willingness of the people to be tagged, and the number of volunteers working.

Already more than 100 volunteers have signed their willingness to assist in the work. One hundred more are needed, if only for a few hours during Saturday.

Those in charge of the project will be in attendance at the assembly rooms of Keith's Theatre tomorrow from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., where they will receive any volunteers and provide them with banks and tags.

The managers of the bank of New Brunswick has loaned 250 small banks for the tag day and will be given out to-night to the volunteers, whose names have already been received.

The taggers will work in pairs tomorrow, one canvasser will carry the bank and the other the tags. While one worker is fastening the tag the other will receive the tagged of his or her charge.

When the banks are filled they will be taken to the Bank of New Brunswick and opened, while bank officials have been deputed to count the money and keep the account straight.

It has been stated that no person will be tagged unless they are willing, but there is no saving clause in this proviso, for few would venture to refuse.

As a last tip it might be mentioned that the only way for a citizen or a citizeness to escape being tagged somewhere in St. John tomorrow is to leave town tonight. And even this remedy is not guaranteed. Best plan is to be tagged early and get it over with.

The chaplains who will supervise the distribution of refreshments to the young ladies tomorrow will be the city proper will be: Mrs. H. H. Pickett, Mrs. John Bullock, Dr. Margaret Parks, Mrs. T. H. Bullock, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Miss Jarvis, Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Mrs. B. C. Elkin, Mrs. Wm. Angus, Mrs. T. M. Vincent, Mrs. H. Y. S. McKinnon, Mrs. E. S. Blake, Mrs. F. E. Holman, Mrs. H. Colby Smith and Mrs. Landman.

Those in the local end will be: Mrs. W. C. Matthews, Mrs. Harry Roberts, Mrs. W. C. Matthews, Mrs. Harry Roberts, Mrs. Miss Louise Roberts.

DASCOLIN WILLSAIL FOR HOME*Austrian Who Has Had Rather a Strenuous Career Here Will go as Cattleman on the Empress of Ireland.

Nicholas Dascolin is free again. This morning he was released from jail under a civil action for debt in neglecting to recompense Moncton men for liquor purchased from them during the past summer and fall, to the amount of $200, and sold to the laborers on the Grand Trunk Pacific construction work on the line near Moncton.

On February 2, he reached St. John, and on the following night he was arrested for intoxication and carrying a loaded revolver on Mill street. On February 4 he was fined $4, and deducted the sum from the $100 or more he possessed. He announced his intention of sailing on Feb. 5 on a steamship for Antwerp, and was again arrested shortly before the steamer departed, by the local police, in response to requests from Postmaster Crandall, of Moncton, to hold the Austrian on the charge of forging a fellow-countryman's name on a post office cheque. On Saturday he was escorted to the railway town by a Moncton policeman, and after he returned to this city, having been liberated owing to lack of prosecution, he informed a local policeman that on the journey to Moncton, the Moncton officer had advised him to jump the train at Sussex and escape, but he decided to continue. He compromised with his creditors this morning for $80, and will terminate his trials and tribulations today, for he has booked passage on the Empress of Ireland as cattleman.

It is doubtful if the Moncton parties who chained his arrest yesterday, would have secured a fraction of the amount of indebtedness and their subterfuge at the eleventh hour in frightening the foreigner out of $80, as the liquor was purchased in a Scott Act county.

In Moncton, Dascolin was fined $175 by Stipendiary Kay for illegal liquor selling in his shack, and he claims that he was innocent, asserting that a man, named Cook, who was afterwards confined to jail, sold the intoxicants in his cabin without his permission. After Cook served his term, he deprived Dascolin of $200, according to his story. If he had evaded arrest, however, for intoxication and carrying the weapon here on Feb. 3, he would now be across the Atlantic with at least $100 more than he possesses now.

LADIES TO PLAY MONCTON

Two rinks of St. John lady curlers went to Moncton at noon today to play the ladies of the railway town tonight.

The rinks are composed of the following ladies:

Mrs. A. P. Crockett, Mrs. H. G. Schofield, Mrs. R. K. Jones, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Miss Winnifred Barnaby, Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. Walter Holly, skip.

THE LATE HARRY DUNHAM

The funeral of Harry Le Roy Dunham took place on Tuesday from the residence of his father, Samuel Dunham, Millville, N. B., to Cedar Hill cemetery. The little fellow, who was only four and a half years old, was a general favorite, and news of his death, from congestion of the lungs, was received with much regret.

Ald. Frink returned to the city on the Boston train at noon.
