"THE LATE TENANT"

By GORDON HOLMES

"But, for goodness sake—"
"Which way?" "Don't rush your fences, I'll tell you everything, so keep calm. First, the night before last, Straus comes to me—"
"His moment," broke in David. "Is this Straus?" and he handed her the portrait.

access to that flat on one other occasion had been the prelude to a tragic discovery though he, not being in the building at the time, had heard of the affair only from his mates.
David smiled reassuredly at him, and went back to his bedroom to dress. He placed the portrait and the letter in an inner pocket of his waistcoat provided for paper money, and the hour being in advance of breakfast-time, went out for a stroll.

Regent's Park was delightful that morning. Not spring, but summer, was in the air. Nature, to outward appearance, seemed to be in the full of her powers, and the trees, already green and hedge-rows hung their leafy screens across the land-escape. So David wandered on, promising himself many such mornings with Violet; for it passed his wit to see how Van Huppfeldt could wriggle out of the testimony of his own picture and his own handwriting.

Henry Van Huppfeldt.
The fifty pounds which he thus telegraphed to Dibbin were notes which he had brought for the gambler's use; so this payment was deferred, at the least.
Then he sent word to the Portsmouth firm that Dibbin was to be despatched on a secret estate-hunting quest in Devonshire, at any terms he chose to demand. His next telegram was to Mrs. Carter at Langley.

CHAPTER XX.
DAVID HAS ONE VISITOR, AND EXPECTS OTHERS.
David had to rise pretty early to admit his charwoman. Behind her, in the outer lobby, he saw the earnest face of the hall-porter, who remembered that a certain loud knocking and difficulty of gaining

SLEEPLESS?
Nerves Are Packed
Vitality is Lowered
Brain is Congested
Health Undermined
Opates, Sedatives, Narcotics, Worse Than Useless—Produce no Permanent Good.

Worry, overwork, over-study and indigestion cause insomnia, natural sleep can't be produced by drugs.
First, the blood circulation must be improved.
Congestion of blood in the head must be removed.
Irritation in the brain must be relieved, it's because Ferrone equalizes circulation, because it soothes the irritation, because it removes congestion that it does cure insomnia.

For building blood and nerve, for installing force and life into overworked organs, for establishing strength and vitality, where can you find anything so sure as Ferrone.
Remember, sleep is just as important as food.
You must sleep, or break down.
You can if you'll use Ferrone and thereby remove the conditions which now keep you from sleep.

Ferrone is not a narcotic, not a dope; it is a health-giving tonic that for a year or delicate woman can use.
Absolutely safe is Ferrone.
Take it for a month, take it for a year—no harm, but immeasurable good will result.
To sleep well, look well, feel well, to be free from depression, nervousness or blues use Ferrone. It's a food tonic, a healer to the weak and wretched, a boon to the sleepless—sold everywhere in 50c. boxes.

HARRISON A. McKEOWN NEW ATTORNEY-GENERAL

He Was Sworn-in at Moncton Yesterday and Will Run in St. John County—Nov. 15 the Date.

Hon. Harrison A. McKeown was sworn in as attorney-general in the New Brunswick government Monday afternoon at Moncton. The oath of office was administered by J. Howe Dickson, clerk of the executive council, in the presence of Lieut. Governor Tweedie, Premier Robinson and Hon. F. J. Sweeney.

Hon. H. A. McKeown, afternoon and the new attorney-general returned to this city, arriving here last night.

Hon. Mr. McKeown will run for St. John county. Dr. Roddick M. P., one of the county members, has resigned his seat and his resignation is now in the hands of the premier. Dr. Roddick, it has been stated, is slated for the position of quarantine officer at this port. It is understood that the bye-election will be called on at once, that nomination will be held Nov. 8 and the election of Nov. 10. It was reported Monday that George Robertson, M. P., had resigned to take the position of deputy receiver general here but this is denied. The report that it has been decided to call another session of the local legislature before the general provincial election has recently been strengthened and a session is now regarded as assured.

Hon. Harrison A. McKeown, the new attorney-general, was born in St. Stephen on Nov. 28, 1863, and is the son of Rev. Hezekiah and Elizabeth S. McKeown. He was educated in the collegiate school at Fredericton and at Mount Allison, graduating B. A. from the latter in 1881. He studied law with the late Dr. A. A. Stockton and Hon. A. S. White and was admitted attorney of the supreme court in 1884. In the following year he graduated in law from Victoria University, and in 1886 he was returned for the city. On the reorganization of the New Brunswick government in January, 1900, Mr. McKeown was taken into the cabinet and was a member of the Emmerson administration as solicitor-general. Subsequently he resigned to run for the federal house and was beaten in the bye-election by Dr. J. W. Daniel and in the next general election he contested the city and county and was defeated by the late Dr. A. A. Stockton.

The annual thank offering service of the W. P. M. Society, of St. Stephen's church, was held last evening and was well attended. Rev. Gordon Dickie, the church pastor, presided. Rev. A. B. Colton, of Brussels street Baptist church, gave an interesting address, saying that the best way to interest oneself in missionary work was to do missionary work at home. Mrs. Warden sang Lead, Kindly Light, Fred Keyes sang a solo, while the children of the mission band also took part in the programme.

Mr. Derragh certainly did have a hard time of it, winter before last. Caught cold, and it settled in his kidneys. First thing he knew, he was in bed with Rheumatism. He didn't want to go to the pain was so intense. The doctors gave him the usual treatment—and pretty nearly burnt his legs with liniments and blisters—but the Rheumatism went right on aching.

How about you? Haven't you suffered enough without going all over it again this winter? Get Gin Pills now—and cure yourself at home. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample to try. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg. Only one a box—6 boxes for $2.50.

Denver man considers wife worth only $150. DENVER, Oct. 28.—Judging by a settlement in the case of W. E. Miller against Thomas Hayden, preceding its dismissal in Judge Riddle's court, a wife is worth about $150. Miller came originally from Cedar Rapids, Ia., as did also Hayden, who was a prominent business man of that town. Last July Miller discovered his wife and Hayden in a rooming house. He had them arrested on a criminal charge, but they were acquitted. Miller then brought suit for the sum of $10,000 for alienation of his wife's affections. Mrs. Miller sought her husband's forgiveness, and cooled the ardor of his legal proceedings. A conference was held, and Miller decided that his wife was worth only about $150, and agreed to settle for that amount.

CARLETON'S CITY HALL

Its Condition Discussed at Safety Board Last Night.

At a meeting of the board of public safety last night Ald. J. H. Frink referred to the present condition of the Carleton city hall as disgraceful. On his motion the director was instructed to obtain estimates of the cost of renovation so that the work could be gone on with next year. A number of matters relating to city leases were discussed and passed upon.

The recorder explained the position with reference to the piece of land the C. P. R. wished to acquire from the city. He was not quite clear whether the city could give a fee simple or lease, but he would look into all the authorities and give an opinion at the council meeting.

A petition was presented from the Carleton Cornet Band asking for the use of the lower hall in the Carleton city building for entertainments. It is understood that the band wants to enter a nickel show. After some discussion W. J. Irons, who appeared for the band, was told that Rev. Mr. Sampson, who has a lease of the lower flat, has power to sub-let to the band.

The board decided to grant the petition of James McAulay, who rents a lot from the city for $20 a year and who desired a reduction to $10. It was also decided to renew the Bridget Looney lease at Greenhead at the minimum rent of $10.

Miss DeVoe offered to call to the board the strip next No. 1 engine house, 15 feet by 30 feet for $200. A sub-committee will look into this matter.

The application of Policeman Gostine to be recouped for six days time lost on account of sickness and death in his family was granted.

Chief Clerk sent in a requisition for six new overcoats for the force and repairs to nine other overcoats. It was decided to call for tenders.

The director said that he had received two tenders for two and a half miles of copper wire wanted by the fire department. James Hunter's tender was for 19 cents and Chas. Jones' 23 cents a pound. On motion of Ald. Hamm the contract was awarded to the lower tender.

Tenders will also be called for the forage necessary for the department, three roll shels and for the restoration of the old No. 8 engine house. In connection with this last Ald. Bullock suggested that the upper flat could be used for a men's shelter.

The matter of properly heating the lavatory in the market building was left

VANDALISM AT TOWN OF NICOLET
Anglican Church Damaged and the Bible Burned—Authorities Will Investigate.

Three Rivers, Que., Oct. 28.—An act of vandalism is reported from Nicolet. When the Anglican church in Nicolet was opened yesterday morning, it was discovered that fifty panes of glass were smashed, the doors were torn from their hinges, books were destroyed and the large Bible had been taken from the lectern and burned in the stove.

Rev. Mr. Stuart, of Three Rivers, went over to Nicolet a few Sundays ago, but did not go near the church, the service being held in private house. He passed by the church on that occasion, but did not notice anything wrong. It is not known when the outrage was committed, but the authorities promise that a vigorous investigation will be made.
