

VISITORS GIVE ADDRESSES AT DOCTORS' MEET

Sir Henry Gauvin One Speaker at Session This Morning

The members of the New Brunswick Medical Society continued their convention in the Unique Theatre this morning. The principal speaker was Sir Henry Gauvin, of Alton, Hampshire, England, who lectured on surgical measures in tuberculosis. Dr. Miller, of the N. S. Sanatorium, Kentville, delivered a paper on the diagnosis of tuberculosis, and Dr. Stuart Pritchard, director of the chest clinic at the Battle Creek Sanatorium, gave an interesting address on the use of iodized oil in the treatment of bronchitis.

The sessions will be continued this afternoon.

OPENING SESSION

Dr. R. J. Collins, medical superintendent of the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium, opened the afternoon session with a lecture on the simplified diagnosis of pulmonary tuberculosis. Dr. Collins declared that 75 per cent of the tubercular patients brought to the institution for treatment had no medical attention whatsoever up to the time of their arrival. He stressed the importance of discovering signs of the disease at an early stage and spoke on the use of the X-ray in this connection.

Dr. Paul D. White, cardiologist of the Massachusetts General Hospital, spoke on the relationship of the heart to lung pathology. He stated that rheumatism in children was very prevalent and all care should be taken by medical men to see that this was remedied as soon as possible. Dr. White

FORMER PREMIER HOPEFUL IN CONTEST

Hon. Mr. King in Province Today, Expresses Optimism Over Election Result

The Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party and late Premier of Canada, passed through McAdam Junction today en route to Woodstock in his private car this forenoon. He motored to Sherbrooke, P.Q. yesterday and spoke there last night, entraining at 11 o'clock.

To a Times-Star reporter at the Junction, Mr. King expressed himself as optimistic over the prospects of his party in next month's battle of ballots and reported his late western tour to have been highly satisfactory as to the outlook for Liberal success. Hon. Mr. King will speak in Saint John tomorrow night. It will be his second large platform meeting since coming from the West and Northern Ontario.

TO BE IN SAINT JOHN

Rev. Dr. McCutcheon of Montreal in Woodstock Today For Convention

Rev. Dr. Miles F. McCutcheon, pastor of the amalgamated First Baptist and Olive Baptist churches, Montreal, arrived in Woodstock today, where he will extend greetings of the Quebec-Ontario body to the Maritime Baptist committee. He will proceed down the river valley to Saint John, stopping off at Fredericton a few hours, and preach in Central Baptist church next Sunday. Rev. Dr. McCutcheon was a former pastor of Brussels street Baptist church, and previous to that principal of one of Saint John's private schools. He is a prominent figure in the denomination in Canada. In a short while a large volume will be taken off the press entitled "The Christian and War," being the composite effort of a small inter-denominational selection of prominent clergymen of Canada. Rev. Dr. McCutcheon's series of lectures on this subject was largely embodied in the publication.

CANON ARMSTRONG'S CHURCH

The Very Rev. Dr. W. H. Armstrong, Bishop of London, preached in the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto, last Sunday—the church where Rev. Canon Armstrong, formerly of Saint John, is now located. The edifice was packed and hundreds could not gain admittance. Several Saint John people were present.

THEFT IS CHARGED

Charged with stealing $416.67 which is alleged he received with the understanding that this sum be paid to Benjamin Williams, Walter Bell, of this city, was arrested last evening by Sergeant Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning and was remanded for three days. The question of bail probably will be taken up tomorrow. B. L. Grew appeared for the defence. The story told in connection with the matter was that Mr. Williams had bought a ticket in a baseball pool on a fifty-fifty basis and that it proved a winning combination.

his wife were the only friends seen by the actress. Eyron said they found her "shattered by the tragedy." Again and again she moaned, "I have lost not only my dearest friend, but the one real love of my life."

WILL CONTINUE PICTURES.

Hiram Abrams, president of the film corporation which had Valentino under contract, said that Valentino's new pictures whose premieres Valentino came east to attend, would continue in circulation throughout the world, and that other pictures produced by his company, featuring the late actor, would also continue to be shown.

Valentino died of septic poisoning that entered his heart and lungs. At the time it was revealed that internal disorders which brought about his death, began six weeks ago. Valentino had been suffering from a serious ailment himself suffering from "slight indigestion" and not seeking medical advice. When he finally collapsed a week ago last Sunday, it was too late to save his life, one of his physicians said.

A RICKETTS DEAD

Youth Was Clever Amateur Boxer—Dies at Upper Loch Lomond

The death of Alfred Ricketts, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ricketts, of 1 Short street, beyond the Marsh Bridge, occurred yesterday at a camp at Upper Loch Lomond, where he had been suffering for a year from chronic asthma, and an attack of acute bronchitis hastened the end. He was only 19 years old, and will be remembered by followers of athletic sports as one of the cleverest young amateur boxers in the city, before his illness came upon him. In 27 bouts in which he appeared he was winner in 25.

Of a quiet, kindly disposition, he had a great number of friends, who mourn his passing and sympathize with his parents and his two brothers, Herbert and Arthur, who survive him. The father says the family are greatly indebted to the summer colony at Loch Lomond for sympathy and kindly advice. He funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, with service at St. Paul's church at 8 o'clock. Interment will be in Fernhill.

Happy Time Given Children at Loch Lomond on Monday Afternoon

Through the generosity of a few members of the different Catholic parishes in and about the city, an outing in the nature of a re-union was given yesterday afternoon to the Catholic orphans, the boys from Silver Falls and the girls from the Cliff street institution, on the grounds of Rev. H. L. Coughlin's church at Loch Lomond.

The children were conveyed to and from the scene of activities in automobiles loaned by friends of the orphans. The afternoon was spent with games, sports and other forms of amusement, the prizes which had been donated for the different events being presented to the winners by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc.
