OR many years the Bank of Montreal has played an Lactive and constructive part in the banking and business relations between Canada and the United States.

In 1855 the Bank established its own office in New York and today its Agency at 64-68 Wall Street holds a leading position among foreign financial institutions represented in that city.

In 1861 the Bank's Chicago Office was opened to care for extensive Western business. Today, at 27 South La Salle Street, Chicago, the Bank is participating actively in banking affairs. In San Francisco and at Spokane the Bank also has its own office.
