

SITUATION IN BERLIN AWFUL

Observer Declares Masses Lack
Clothing and Fuel and Food

Bitter Toward War Lords—
Able-Bodied Men Kept
Away From the Capital for Fear They Might Start a
Revolt

London, Jan. 15.—From a source which it can vouch for as entirely trustworthy, the Morning Post says it is able to give the following account of conditions in Berlin. The statement, which is made by an observer at first hand, who left Germany only in the middle of December, reads:

"The situation in Berlin is absolutely awful. For the great mass of the population there hardly is any light, warmth, clothing, or boots, and an appalling lack of food. The work of the city is carried on by decrepit men and by women, who are reduced to nearly the same condition. The linen worn by both sexes is abominably dirty, for there is no soap to wash it. There is intensely bitter feeling among the people against the government. Undoubtedly there would be a revolt but for the fact—was the people are always saying—women cannot make a revolution.

"The government knows all of this and forbids able-bodied men returning to Berlin from the front. Officers are allowed to return there only in exceptional circumstances. Hindenburg is loathed by the people of Berlin. Placards with a picture of Hindenburg, and urging the population to subscribe to the loans to hold out, etc., are torn down by the people of Berlin, although in South Germany they are not touched at all. Over Berlin little notices are posted up offering a reward of $500 marks to any one giving information of persons who say anything against the government, the emperor, the war, or the officers.

"The population of Berlin is divided, roughly, into three classes—the upper military class, which adores Hindenburg and hates Ludendorff; the middle class, which loves Ludendorff because he gives high posts in the army to Jews; and the lower working class, which loathes Hindenburg, Ludendorff, and especially the emperor. This latter class ridicules the crown prince unmercifully. Otherwise nobody speaks of the imperial family, which has ceased to be a dominant factor.

"The well-to-do classes get along fairly comfortably because the necessities of life can be purchased if one can afford to give fabulous sums for them. A

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mild soap and water (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply wash the hair with water and soap.

It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, moving every particle of dirt, dirt, and dandruff and excessive oil. The hair is quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mild coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few cents will supply every member of the family for months.

HON. MR. CARVELL IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 14.—Speaking as the guest of honor before the Canadian Club of New York tonight, Hon. Frank B. Carvell, Canadian minister of public works, said that Canada would remain in the war until the last gun was fired.

"Our love of liberty, the love of liberty that we Canadians cherish in our hearts," the speaker said, "caused us to respond to the colors more than four hundred thousand strong. Seventy thousand of our sons have fallen in battle, but thousands more will fill the ranks until final victory comes."

WILSON GETS IRISH PLEA

Washington, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Sherley Skeffington, widow of Francis Skeffington, the Irish editor put to death in the reign of terror, was received at the White House today by President Wilson.

She came to present a petition signed by many prominent Irish women, asking that the United States recognize the political independence of Ireland. Earlier in the day she made the same appeal to the president.

RE-OPEN RAILWAYS.

As a result of a recent visit to Ottawa by Stanley E. Elkin, M. P.-elect, and Rupert W. Wignmore, M. P.-elect, the Halifax and Elgin railway and the Salisbury and Harvey branch are now being opened. An order-in-council was passed whereby the federal government has power to keep these railways under operation. It is understood that any delay arising from winter operation will be charged against the rates instead of against the companies controlling them. Gangs of men have been put to work on both of these roads clearing them of ice and snow.

Mrs. S. K. Smith was in the chair at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Young Ladies' League of the Y. M. C. A. Plans for the year were discussed.

Canada's Wonderful Honor Roll

CONTAINS THE NAMES OF OVER 400,000 MEN WHO HAVE ENLISTED TO HELP FREE THE WORLD FROM OPPRESSION
AND MAD MILITARY AMBITION

But there is a longer list than that by far. There are over 2,000,000 Fathers, Mothers, Brothers and Sisters of those men who have gone to the front, who have endured the sorrows of parting, who have gone through the agony of apprehension without a murmur, and who have shown a fortitude but a little short of the self-sacrificing heroism of the men at the front.

These Next of Kin of the gallant Canadian soldiers at the front, or who are destined to go there, deserve the recognition of all Canadians and are entitled to be on an Honor Roll of imperishable fame, for they have made sacrifices most cheerfully, and have endured much that Right and Liberty may triumph.

That the relatives of the men in khaki may show a tribute of honor and respect to their loved ones a most suitable "IN HONOR" BADGE has been prepared at the suggestion of the leading newspapers of Canada, similar to the designs herewith shown.

That these Badges may be the last word in quality of manufacture, in beauty of design, and in appropriateness to the great cause for which they will be worn, the firm of Henry Birks & Sons, Limited, of Montreal, were invited to be the sole manufacturers of these badges.

They are made of bronze, very dainty and attractive, and are most fitting tributes of respect to those who have enlisted.

These Badges are now ready for delivery, and can be secured through the use of the Order Form below, and in no other way except from the newspapers interested. Send in your order while our first consignment is available.
