SATURDAY OR SUNDAY, WHICH
The keeping of Saturday or Sunday, Which? was the subject of a paper read this morning by Rev. D. Hutchinson at a meeting of the Baptist ministers. It proved of much interest, and showed considerable research. It traced the growth of the belief of Seventh Day Adventists, and their reasons for observing the seventh day, also stating the reasons for the observance of Sunday by Christians. Rev. W. Camp was appointed secretary succeeding Rev.
G. D. Milbury who resigned, as he is to leave the city. Elder Miller of the Seventh Day Adventist church replied to Mr. Hutchinson's paper. Rev. A. B. Cohoe was also present, as was Rev. A. Addison, of Liverpool, N. S.

Wanamaker's Restaurant Proprietor is Sending'Them up-There's Profit for Finders

Miss McClelland, the expert corsetaire of the Bias Corsets Co., Ltd., will be at F. W. Daniel & Company's, corner of King street, tomorrow and Wednesday. She is making this short stay to accommodate her many friends in St. John who appreciate her wide experience in corset fitting.

The closing exercises in connection with the Forty Hours Devotion in Holy Trinity church were conducted last night. The pastor, Rev. J. J. Walsh, assisted by Rev. A. J. O'Neil.

A. J. O'Neil of Silver Falls, conducted the Benediction of the Services. After vespers, an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. O'Neil. The services closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The church was packed to the doors.
