WILD SCENE AT WRESTLING BOUT

Details of Match Between Zbyszko

Crowd Aroused by Act—Spectator Threw Chair at Fallen Wrestler, and Threaten Him With Injury

New York, Mar. 21.—The wildest wrestling bout New York has ever witnessed came to a sensational close last night at Madison Square Garden when Wladek Zbyszko butted Strangler Lewis so hard with his head that he sent him helpless and dazed through the ropes.
Referee Billy Roche promptly awarded the decision to Lewis on a foul.

A scene of rowdism and disorder followed the sudden finish of the fastest match ever held here between heavyweights. The infuriated crowd fought to get at the Pole. There were cries of "kill him" and frantic spectators hurled chairs at Zbyszko as he left the ring. It was necessary for the attendants to fight the crowd back to save the Pole from violent treatment.

Madison Square Garden was packed with the largest crowd which has jammed into the old arena since the Willard-Moran fight. Enthusiasm ran riot dur-

CUT A GERMAN WARSHIP IN TWO

Eighteen Hun Vessels Fled—Gallant Work by the British Destroyer Botha After She Had Been Crippled

London, Mar. 26.—In the engagement between allied and enemy destroyer squadrons off Dunkirk on last Thursday, the British destroyer Botha cut a German warship in half and took a leading part in the fighting, although her main steam pipe had been severed by a stray shell.

Early in the morning the British destroyers Botha and Morris and the French destroyers Capitaine Mehl, Magon and Bouclier were patrolling the eastern waters of the English Channel when they heard enemy ships bombarding the coast of Dunkirk. They fired star-shells which had the effect of silencing the bombs and scattering the enemy.

The destroyers started in pursuit of the Germans in a northwesterly direction and eventually the enemy ships were making for their base.

A grim little fight ensued, according to the German torpedo boats. The British destroyer of a large type and torpedoed her at a range of 500 yards.
The German vessel was disabled and sank immediately.

Meanwhile the Botha had been crippled by a shell and was unable to pursue the enemy. The crew determined to do what damage they could and fired both their torpedoes at the enemy boats. Then, her helm having been put hard over, the Botha rammed another boat, cleanly bisecting it, cutting the enemy vessel in half.

Swinging around, the Botha attempted to repeat the ramming manoeuvre on the next German stern. The enemy craft, however, eluded the effort of the crumpled Britisher, but only to fall a victim to the French destroyers. Abaze, the German boat lay disabled, while the Frenchmen pounded her with torpedoes and gun fire. The Morris lost the rest of the quarry in the mist and took the lame Botha in tow, while the French destroyers circled around, picking up prisoners. From the statements of prisoners it appears that eighteen German craft participated in the raid, and when they fled from the French coast, leaving three of their number behind, they were attacked by a British naval air squadron which pelleted them with bombs and scattered them in disorder in all directions.

STEFANSSON VERY ILL

Was Seen in January by Son of Sir Charles Tupper, Captain in Mounted Police

Vancouver, B. C., Mar. 26.—With eyes black and sunken and face yellow and severe pains in the head and body, so wretched with pain that only daily sled journeys had been made, the Arctic explorer, the Arctic explorer, was a very sick man when he was seen at Herschel Island police barracks by Captain J. M. Tupper, of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police on Jan. 12.

Captain Tupper, who is a son of Sir Charles Tupper, arrived in the city yesterday after a visit to the most northern of the police posts.

Hub—Well, I'm willing to sacrifice but burnt offering?

THE CONFLICT OF Love and Fat

The average man will "jolly" with the stout girl, but he steals glances over her shoulder at the Miss Slender. He would sooner hold the hands of the latter in a fatuously silence than really enjoy himself with the other. Such is the power of line. Just a line—from chin to toe, or nape to heel—that's all. But it rings the merry marriage bell.

Fat women should not repine—but refine—their own lines by means of that phenomenal—the Marmola Tablet. No exercising or dieting is necessary. Simply take one tablet after each meal and at bedtime, and in a little while the overplus of fat—the coarseness of aspect will disappear. The figure will become slight enough to permit of a maidenly contour, a pure outline, being fashioned with corset and gown. Then victory—if not revenge.

Although Marmola Tablets often take off uniformly a pound of flabby fat a day, they are quite harmless (being made of the famous fashionable prescriptions 1/2 oz. Marmola, 3-4 oz. FL. Ex. Casarea Aromatic, 4-4 oz. Peppermint Water).
Consequently even timid ones are safe in using them, for no ill—not even a winkle or stomach ache—will follow their use; seventy-five cents secures a large case at any druggist's or by mail from the Marmola Co., 564 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

For shooting each other in the leg to avoid military service, two United States soldiers at Texas have been sentenced for cowardice to fifteen years' imprisonment.
