

We had a fair meeting in the Presbyterian Church at Brooklyn (Newport Branch), collection $1.64. I am glad to see again the hand of its active secretary in its large subscription list of over $43. Every family in that district seems to contribute to our cause.

The meeting at Windsor was smaller than expected. Collection $2.56. I have not heard whether that Committee has since accomplished a canvass of the town. On account of a heavy storm when at Horton we had no meeting.

We had a good meeting in the Baptist Church at Wolfville. The plate collection and my canvass of that town realized $25.06.

Church Street Branch has again done well, and our thanks are again due to Mrs. E. Chase and the esteemed collector for their deep interest manifested annually in our cause.

Our good President and friends at Canning have again gladdened our hearts with a large contribution, but as yet I have not heard from Canard or Kentville.

In little Somerset our friends are few, but their gifts are good.

Our esteemed collector at Berwick deeply deplores that his solicitations were not more liberally responded to.

Aylesford still keeps up her wonted contributions.

Middleton shews a falling off.

Two families in Lawrencetown form our constituency there, and are unfailing in their good annual gift.

The meeting at Bridgetown was fair and the contribution the best ever made for our cause in that nice little town. Deep indeed is our gratitude to Mr. FitzRandolph for his devotion to the Bible Society. $53.48 is this year's token of Bridgetown sympathy.

At Round Hill, since my last report, our Society lost a good friend in the death of Mr. James Fullerton. His aid was invaluable, his platform service inspiring, while the hospitalities were to me most cheering. The lady collectors, by assiduous effort, have gathered $23.80—a goodly sum for this scattered district.

Annapolis Royal has not been so queenly in her largesse this year as in the past; may she be inspired to nobler effort henceforth by the achievements of her rural neighbor to the east.

The collection at Digby meeting added to Mrs. England's subscription list, amounted to $15. If that kind lady could obtain some co-laborers from the ranks of the various churches, the annual contribution might be greatly enlarged.
