

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA

UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY

In judging a Bank's strength there are two important things to be considered.

FIRST—

THE PAID UP CAPITAL STOCK.—This represents the amount of Capital invested in the business by the Stockholders. The liability of the Stockholders to this Bank is $5,575,000.

SECOND—

SURPLUS.—Surplus is profits from the business set aside as additional working Capital. It adds just so much to the Bank's strength and is additional security to depositors. This Bank's Surplus is $5,575,000.

Capital & Surplus, $11,150,000

An evening's program, very much out of the ordinary, and which was generally appreciated by the audience was that furnished by Mr. J. W. Bengough, in St. Paul's church last evening. The drawings by Mr. Bengough were followed with deep interest, particularly his local sketches. Mr. Bengough kept the audience well entertained and the various features were thoroughly appreciated by all in attendance.

From Thursday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Canon Hincks took place yesterday afternoon from St. James church. The burial service of the Anglican church was rendered with all its beauty and simplicity. The service began with the sweet strains of that familiar hymn "Jesus Lover of My Soul" being sung by the choir followed by several clergy and the Bishop in procession, and united in by the vast congregation. Very Rev. Dean Davis of London then read the 90th Psalm after which Venerable Archdeacon Hill of St. Thomas read the lesson from Cor. 1:15. Then followed that beautiful Christian hymn of triumph—

"On the resurrection morning
Soul and body meet again,
No more sorrow, no more weeping,
No more pain."

The prayers were read by Bishop Williams, and after the singing of "Rock of Ages" and the Nunc Dimittis, the coffin was borne to the hearse by the following laymen of St. James church, all of whom were parishioners when the late Canon Hincks was Rector of Ingersoll: Messrs Thomas Wells, M. Walsh, C. C. L. Wilson, H. Richardson, Dr. Canfield, and R. H. Young.

The mourners in procession were: Rev. F. H. Hincks, of Brantford; Messrs J. A. Ready and Charles Evans-Lewis of Toronto and the Rev. Canon Spencer of Mt. Forest.

At the graveside the service was taken by the Bishop and Rev. Dr. Sage, of London.

Beside the clergy already named and the Rector, Rev. Dr. J. M. Perkins, the following were in attendance: Revs. A. Carlyle, Windsor; R. J. Murphy, Thamesford; T. G. Wallace and R. H. Shaw, Woodstock. Col. Lang represented All Saints church, Windsor, and Mr. C. R. H. Warnock, Trinity church, Galt, both of which congregations had been served by the late Canon Hincks as Rector.

Look Out For This Woman.

You can easily tell her. She has a clear complexion, rosy cheeks and there is none of that don't care to live air about her. She took Merrill's System Tonic. For weak watery blood, female troubles, dull pains in the back and tired listless feelings System Tonic is a sure, safe and speedy cure. In pleasant-to-take tablet form, three weeks' treatment. WARREN—ANDERSON.

The home of Mr. Robt. Anderson, Canterbury street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when his eldest daughter, Minnie, was united in marriage to Roy Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Warren of Salford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. B. Christie in the presence of about fifty guests, the bridal party standing under an evergreen arch, bright with tinsel and candles. The wedding march was played by Miss Florence Warren, sister of the groom.

The bride's gown was of cream silk and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. The only attendant was the flower girl, little Miss Mildred Gregg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg, of Folsom, who was dressed in white silk and carried a basket containing pink carnations and the ring.

All the rooms were prettily decorated and were illuminated by candles and Japanese lanterns.

After the wedding repast congratulations and best wishes were showered upon the happy couple, they left on the evening train for Sarnia and points west, the bride travelling in a tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match.

A handsome array of presents testified to the esteem in which the bride is held by a wide circle of friends.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Warren will reside near Salford.

GOLDING—ROSENHURST.

A pretty wedding took place at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. V. Rosenhurst, McKend street, when his only daughter, Florence Lillian, was united in marriage to William J. Golding of North Oxford. Rev. R. J. M. Perkins officiated and the ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a beautiful gown of crepe silk and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Isabel Golding, sister of the groom. Mr. Vincent Rosenhurst, brother of the bride, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Elma Kerr. After the ceremony a very dainty wedding breakfast was served.

The happy couple left on the eastern flyer for Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside on McKend street.
