The semi-annual examination school was held on Friday the 28th April The pupils were examined in Reading Arithmetic and Geography, with exercises on the map. Class A were examined i obtland and England from memory on written by herself, and gave a recitation, "The Bridge." The reading in all the At Lowest Prices. classes was particularly good, and the copy books showed that the pupils were neglected in that branch of their studies. There were 14 visitors present. Master Jonathan B. Noble took the only prize offered for the most regular ndauce. Mr. A. G. Williston, one o the trustees, at the close of the examina-tion, spoke of how well satisfied he and gress the pupils were making in this school Miss Robertson, the teacher, cer tainly is to be congratulated on the protaken charge of this school. For weeks, during the past winter, she has had to use snowshoes to get to the school-no matter. post. She is one of the best teachers i the County and is equalled by few-such
