JOHN HOWAT, Chatham June 15th 1885

Weather Probabilities

The probabilities are that we shall have much damp, chilly, sloopy weather during the coming season--just the weather to contract and die of.

Be prepared for them by having on hand Haggard's Pectoral Balsam, a safe, agreeable and speedy cure for colds and their consequences.

The Young Liberals of Ontario will endeavor to arrange for a grand Convention of Young Liberals from all parts of the Dominion, to be held in Montreal in July next.

Threatened Danger.

In the fall of '81 Randall Miller, of Matfield, N. S., was prostrated to his bed with an attack of incipient consumption.

Cough remedies all failed. He rapidly grew emaciated, and friends despaired of his recovery. He tried Burdock Blood Bitters, with immediate relief, followed by a speedy cure.

"The Old Life Preserver" is what they call Haggard's Balsam. It was invented in 1810. This name is well deserved, for it is certainly a preserver of life, and will relieve cough and asthma instantly. --Hewson's Paper.
