Rov. Mr. Aitken then put the usual questions of Presbytery on Tuesday.

It is as follows:

MINUTE.

The police magistrate took some time to consider as to whether he would put ald. Presbytery, record the death of our reverend brother, the Rev. Neil McKay, D. D.

He began his ninistry over forty-five years ago in Murray Harbor, P. E. I. After Rev. Mr. McLutosh addressed the ministrant of Presbytery on Tuesday.

The police magistrate took some time to consider as to whether he would put ald. Flanagan on his defence, and finally did so. Were all necessary information can be have of the pupility of the new pastor, which being duly reasons in connection with other incidents in her household, which fixed the date in her mind.
