POOR DOCUMENT

THE STAR, ST JOHN, N. B. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25 1909

THRFF

Classified Advertisements.

BUS!NESS CARDS

LADIES' TAILORING done at 38 1-2 Peters street. 22-9-6 NOW LANDING—Scotch Splint Soft Coal, $5.50 per ton delivered. The best Soft Coal for Grates or Cooking Stoves. JAMES S. McGIVERN, Agent, 5 Mill Street. Tel. 42.

W. V. HATFIELD. Mason, Plasterer. Builder, Stucco work in all its branch-es. 3141-2 Union Street. Estimates furnished. Only uction men employed. Telephone 1619. 8. A. WILLIAMS, CARFENTER and CONTRACTOR, office 109 Prince
Wm. Street. Telephone 2031, All kinds of work promptly attended to.

J. D. McAVITY, dealer in hard and soft coals. Delivery promptly in the city, 39 Brussels Street. WM. L. WILLIAMS, successor to M. A. Finn. Wholesale and Retail Wine and Spirit Merchant, 110 and 112 Prince Wm. St. Established 1870. Write for family price list

F. C. WESLEY CO., Artists, Engravers and Electrotypers, 59 Water Street, St. John, N. B. Telephone 982. E. LAW, Watchmaker. 2 Coburg St. ROOMS AND BOARDING board at 301 Union street. Phone 764-31.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET-173 GOOD BOARD AND PLEASANT ROOMS at 64 Winter St. 22-9-6

TO RENT-Large pleasant parlo and bedroom, with board. Apply Bo 771, Star office. 22-9-6

TO LET-Pleasant rooms with on without board. 143 Union street.

TO LET-Large room with board, xcellently heated. Apply 33 Paddock

TOURISTS OR VISITORS to the city sceking first class accommodation at reasonable rates. Apply immediately to TOURAINE HOUSE, 75 King.
29-7-lyr.

ROOMS AND BOARD at 160 Prin DINNERS SERVED to a few gentlemen at 160 Princess St. 2 9-5-1 TO LET.—Large front room, with board. 15 Orange street. 28-1-tf

LODGING

RCOMS—Three heated, furnishe rcoms, 34 Orange street. 13-9-1

SITUATIONS VACANT - MALE

WANTED—A cook, first class wages. Man or woman. Ottawa Hotel. 23-9-3 WANTED—A boy at once—grocer. H. Dykeman, 43 St. James street. 24-9-tf.

WANTED-A carload of men for railroad work. Free fare. Friday morn-ing. Wages $1.75 per day. Apply Grant's Employment Bureau, 205 Charlotte St., West.

SALESMEN $50 PER WEEK sellin Newly Patented Egg-beater. Sample and terms 25c. Collette Mfg. Co., Collette Mfg. 1-9-3 m.

WANTED—One Journeyman Printer accustomed to adv. setting; also two Linotype Operators. Apply to Foreman Sun Office. 25-8-tf

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Wednesday morning card case containing $10.00. Reward if returned to Star office. LOST-A sum of money between Albert street and Wellington Row, by way of King street. Kindly leave at Peel street. Star Office.

AGENTS WANTED

ferences, Post Office Box 2226, Mon treal, Que. 20-9-6

FULL

Sometimes one publication of a "To Let" adv. is enough--sometimes its half enough. Again it might need even more persistence---but, the important fact is that it WILL find the tenant.

No to use the classified ads, is to remain "old fashioned" in a "new-fashioned" town.

1 Cent a Word, 6 insertions for the price of 4

You Should Advertise.

XI. Before you close up on a deal Stop, reflect, consider; Perhaps you did not yet appeal To the highest bidder. Another man might yet be had With more coin behind him, And a Business Chance ad Even will help you find him.

Here is a way for you to earn plenty of side money dur- Synopsis of Canadian Northmond street.

16-9-12

TO LET — Two front rooms (private family). 305 Union St.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN wishing pleasant rooms and good table board can be accommodated at No. 17 Horsfield street.

TOURISTS OR VISITORS to the city seeking first class accommodation at reasonable rates. Apply immediately to TOURAINE HOUSE. 3 Kindle Columns of the Sun and Star. They need some one to do a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain deconditions, by father, mother, son daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

TOURISTS OR VISITORS to the city seeking first class accommodation at reasonable rates. Apply immediately to TOURAINE HOUSE. 3 Kindle Columns of the Sun and Star. They need some one to do a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, The applicant may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion l pare moments? It certainly will come in handy. Den't miss these valuable opportunities. Start reading Sun and Star Want Ads. to-day.

SITUATIONS VACANT—IEMALE

FOR SALE

ing homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother

WANTED — Smari, honest Salesgirl for dry goods department. Address Box 773, Star Office. . 23-9-2 WANTED-One checker and one orter. Apply Globe Laundry. 24-9-tf. GIRLS WANTED-Apply General WANTED-Two girls for generative work. Apply at Ungar's Laundry.

WANTED A capable girl. Three in family, No laundry work. Mrs. Wil-liam Hazen, 29 Chipman Hill. 23-2-6 WANTED-A competent maid for general housework, with references. Apply Dr. D. J. Broderick, Union St. 22-9-tf.

WANTED—A capable girl for kitchen work. No washing. Apply 27 Dorochester street. 22-9-6 WANTED-A girl for general house work. Apply 655 Main street.

WANTED—Young woman with one child 4 years old wants position as housekeeper to widower or general servant in small family. Address Box 782, Star office. WANTED—An assistant pastry cook Apply at VICTORIA HOTEL.

GIRLS WANTED—MRS. I. PARKS, elebration street. 21-9-6 WANTED—A girl for general housework. Apply to MRS. BYALIN, 184
Brussels street. 21-9-6 WANTED-Chocolate dipper and girl to learn. Apply PHILLIPS AND WHITE CO., Dock St. 20-9-6 WANTED — Capable maid for general housework. Apply to MRS. D. B. WARNER, corner Chipman Place and

WANTED-A Girl for general housework. References required. Apply to Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton, 115 King St. WANTED-A girl for housework. Apply 25 Oueen Square. 17-9-ti ply 26 Queen Square Edward Hotel

WANTED Chambermaid. Apply at Edward Hetel. 17-9tf WANTED—An experienced saleslady for dry goods and ladies' clothing. Ap-ply at once. Box 769. 17-9-tf WANTED-A girl for general hous york. Apply Box 768. 17-9-tf WANTED-Young Girl to assist with ousework; no washing. Apply 202 St

WANTED - Tailor machinist, mus be first class. DUNLOP COOKE CO TD., 54 King Street. We have a scientific formula which renúers the extraction of teeth absolutely without pain. We fit teeth with G. H. Waterbury, 220 King street,

TO LET-Self-contained house 20 City Road. Seen Mondays and Fridays ofween 3 and 5. TO LET-One acre with house on lot, situated Sandy Point Road. Apply 602

TO LET—Self contained house, corner Duke and Wentworth streets.

Possession at once. Apply KEANE BROS., corner Union and Sydney streets.

TO LET—Flat and barn, Waterloo street. Apply MITCHELL, the Stove Man. 204 Union street, opposite Opera House. 14-9-tf TO LET-Flat at 159 Waterloo street

TO LET—Carleton, Self contained house, nine rooms, splendid location.
Bath room, set tubs, etc. Also flat corner Germain and Ludlow Sts. Apply Capt. Mackellar, Summer and Sea and cold water, electric lights, 78 Ex-FLAT TO LET—October 1st, 9 rooms and bath room, 48 Exmouth street. Apply Arnold's Department Store.

2-9-tf.

TO LET—The rooms lately occupied by Dr. Dickie, 86 King St. Apply to Dr. E. M. Wilson, 57 Charlotte street.

Beth. Of course, the idea of lesing me is upsetting enough, without being and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iteration and realized that Mrs. Lingfield's curious animosity had thrown a very iter interest on the seal of the material transfer of the material or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing rany pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres FOR SALE—Hot air furnace in good repair. G. B. HEGAN, 51 Hazen St. FOR SALE—A number three second hand hot water furnace, will sell cheap. Apply at COUGHLAN'S, 92 Charlette street. 23-2-6

North German Lloyd FOR SALE—Don't forget that out Mid-summer clearance sale is still on. This sale affords an opportunity to pick up some fine bargains in Pianos and Organs THE W. H. JOHNSON. CO., LTD., 7 Market Square, St. John, N. B. Also Halifax, Sydney and New Clasgoy. 24-7-tf.

To ENGLAND and the CONTINENT

Class and Putty, Mixed Paints, Varnish Varnish Stain, Shellao, Raw and Boiled Oil, Plaster Paris, Cement, Whiting, Brushes of all kinds, Lamp Goods, Half Soles and Heels, Rubber Heels, Shoe DUVAL'S, 17 Waterloo Street OELRICHS & CO., General Agen

Carriage for Sale

FAR SALE—Piano, Baus Orchestral Grand. Cost $600. 34 Orange street. 22-9-6

FOR SALE—Parlor chandelier and lamps, gas fixture shades and baby's sleigh. Apply 168 Waterloo street.

FOR SALE—Mrs. Babbit wishes to sell her business which has been established for eleven years. Also her furniture. Apply 57 St. James street any evening.

A nico driving Carriage for sale. Apply to The W. H. Johnson Co., Ltd WANTED

WANTED-Flat of five or six rooms at once. Address Box 764, Star Office. 23-9-3

WANTED--Children to board. Apply 30x 783, Star office. 23-9-tf WANTED—A situation in a whole sale or retail liquor store or hotel bar. Address, A Native, care of Star office. 23-2-6

AGENTS MADE BIG MONEY selling "VOL-PEEK" Granite Cement. Mends holes in pots and pans. Everybody buys. Agents make over 100 p.c. profits. F. NAGLE, Westmount, Que.

TO LET

TO LET—Oct. 1st, upper flat, 5 rooms new house, 191 Millidge Ave. Rent $7.50. Apply ALFRED BURLEY, 46 Princess Street. 24-9-tf.

containing ten rooms and bath. Possession immediately. Enquire of C. H. FERGUSON, 120 Prince William street. 11-9-tf.

TO LET-Small four roomed flat, hot mouth street. Can be seen any day.

Apply 44 Garden street. 8-9-tf.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may trie a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, culsix months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

W. W. CORY

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

N. B.—Unauthorized publication of

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY

Will sell Round Trip Tickets at First Class One Way Fare [with 25c. added for admission Cou-

Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition,

HALIFAX, N. S. Sept. 25th to Oct. 2nd, 1909.

Good going from all Stations in New Brunswick, Sept. 24, 27 and Good for Return until October 4th, STAR WANT ADS.

UGHTER: OF: LIFE

FF A NOVEL FF AND A VERY INTERESTING ONE.

Copyright 1903 - - By MARIA ALBANESI

"Put it how you like," said Drusilla,
"It amounts to the same thing."
She sighed sharply, and, standing in front of the fire, she stared into it with such a shadow on her face as Connie Lingfield had never seen there before. All at once, however, her surmy smile

Bertha Heronworth came back.

"I think we must go, darling," she said to Drusilla. "I have been trying to persuale Aunt Edith to let me see Uncle Edmund, if only for a moment, but she refuses absolutely."

"There was a pathetic — a drawn—lcok on the elder sister's face.

"I wish I could do something," said Cornie Lingfield impulsively.

"You can kiss him for both of us." said Drusilla, "and you can tell him that we are miserable because we haven't seen him. I thought we should all have dinner together tonight, and been ever so jolly. And then Drusilla changed her tone and spoke seriusly ard composedly: "After all, Beth, perhaps Aunt Edith is right. Uncle Edmund has been ill, and he has a tremendous journey in front of him; he ought to have all the rest he can get. We must be reasonable."

"He will be awfully disappointed when he knows he has missed you," said Connie Lingfield; "far more than you can ever understand, for he is very fond of you both. New, if I wanted to be jealous I should have some in the four-wheeler, saying nothing; but it surprised Drusilla to realize how easy it was to feel both intensely bitter and furlously angry. "It is past a joke," she said to her Indeed, she felt semething more than anger against her aunt. There was a resentful feeling. Ever since she could remember, Drusilla had been annoyed by Mrs. Lingfield; but it had been reserved for this moment to reveal heavy little pretence of affection.

there was between them. As they passed into the hotel Bertha said: "You telegraphed to Jim?"
"Yes. I think he ought to be here about now. I didn't make any arrangement about the evening, for of

They went up in the lift in silenc reached Bertha passed into her bed-It was impossible now for Drusilla o disguise from herself that something was troubling her sister to which she ad no direct clue. An explanation fo ertha's silence and disturbed mood night perhaps be found in the sup-Mrs. Lingfield out of the room there might have been an unpleasant dis-

She tossed off her furs and sat down She tossed off her furs and sat down on the hearthrug. A curious depression was settling upon her. She had been eager to get to Lendon. A restless nervousness had driven her away from Crowder Chase; now she felt she hated London and loathed this hotelroom, with its luxurious precision and its unhomelike atmosphere.

her.

When there came a knock at the door and Carlingford entered, Drusilla was crying. She got up very quickly and tried to hide her tears, but he saw them. He caught her by the two wrists and drew her into his arms.

"Something is wrong," he said.

"What is "to"

"The elder sister was dressed before."

"Can't I cry if I want to?"

And very decisively he answered:
"No;" adding, "At least, not unless I don't want you to have a long engage-

"I'm better now," she said.
He loosened his arms, and she stood a little apart, and then he kissed her.
"And now you are all the stood her."

"I had to do it," she said, and she laughed, but there were tears in her eyes. "Yes, she is ill. I have tried to pretend to myself that there is nothing new in it. I daresay you wender why we rushed up to town. It was because Connie sent us a telegram the firsting horribly, and all about me."

Miss Lingfield was on the floor, searching for her scattered bairpins. It was a matter of sharp regret to her now that she had spoken so frankly. But in truth she had seen somewhich had startled her when Drusilla and her sister had arrived. She tried her best to get out of the difficulty. "Put it how you like," said Drusilla, "I believe Beth tried ever so hard, all to no good. I could have slapped Aunt Edith. As it was, I shook poor Con
"And then he kissed her.

"And now you are going to tell me all there is to tell," he said.

"It is such a little 'all,' and there is intention. It daresay you wender why we rushed up to town. It was and then the subject was dismissed as the door opened and Drusilla came in.

When Lady Torchester had first heard of her brother's engagement she had been inclined to take the matter rather badly; in fact, she planned more than one indignant letter protesting against what she regarded as Carling-ford's madness.

Lady Torchester had devoted a good deal of thought to the question of him; proud of his.good looks, of his splendid qualities as a soldier, and na-again.

"I am not so sure," said Drusilla, "I remember—" But then with half a sigh and half a laugh she broke off.

"It's so nice," she said, "to realize that some one cares as you do. You will never change, will you, Jim?"

He only smiled down at her.
"People do change."

"Well, that is a subject you should

"People do change."

"Well, that is a subject you should know something about," said Carlingford, "Ter you are the most chameleon-like person I have ever known. Honestly I am never sure of you."

"Jim!" said Drusilla.

"Fact."

She tried to shake him, but he stood the assault calmly, and, taking her face in his two hands, he kissed it again and again.

"Anyhow, I am going to make as sure of you as I can," he said, "and sooner than we arranged. It is practically settled that I shall go out with the Duke on his tour of inspection to the Colonies as one of his staff, and I of idea that she will want to back out of going; but we must be firm." Oh, she must come!" said Carlingwith the arrangement.

"I would rather have had dinner shrill laugh. "Perhaps I am out of the here," she said; "but we must not refuse Lady Torchester's first invitation." A little later she said to her sisting." A little later she said to her sisting. ter: "I am going to send Catherine with a note for Uncle Edmund. I shall put it under cover to Connie;

its unhomelike atmosphere.

She made no effort to follow her sister. For the first time in her life she felt that Beth perhaps did not want wrists and drew her into his arms.

"Something is wrong," he said.
"What is it?"
Drusilla did not answer at first; she just rested in his embrace; then she is the said.

The elder sister was dressed before Drusilla, and was sitting in the sitting-room when Carlingford ran up.
"I have something to say to you, Jim," Miss Heronworth said a little burriedly in fact a little perwors.

silla but there! Carlingford looked at her for a mo "Tyrant!" said Drusilla. but there was no spirit in her voice.
The man stood and pressed his check against the soft hair. He held her protectingly, as he would have held a little child, and in a few regiments.

BRING RESULTS

"Tyrant!" said Drusilla. but there carmingfort location when, and then he kissed her.
"Thank you, dear," he said. "As a matter of fact, I was going to have five minutes' chat with you tonight, if possible. Something has cropped up which makes it imperative that we against what she regarded as Carlingford's madness.

Lady Torchester had devoted a good deal of thought to the question of her brother's marriags. She was very fond of him; proud of his good looks, of his splendid qualities as a soldier, and naturely of his position, both present and in the future. There were very few women, in Lady Torchester's opinion, who were deserving of the honor of being her brother's wife; and so to be suddenly informed that he had chosen for himself, and chosen a girl about whom she knew absolutely nothing, was really in its way a blow. Even her Carlingford frowned slightly. He had been very conscious of Mrs. Lingfield's unsympathetic attitude toward Drusilla; and in the course of his visit that afternoon he had hit on the very strange idea that this aunt of Drusilla's was cherishing some strange cause of resentment against the girl. Naturally, nothing had been said by Mrs. Lingfield to lead him to that conclusion, but he had arrived at it none the less surely. came.

"I really wanted to shake Aunt Edith," she said. "Connie, it would give me the greatest satisfaction in the world to bring drwn her hair. You know it is her fault that Beth is fretting so much. I make that accusation quite surely. I haven't anything to go upon, but feel convinced that in some way or other Aunt Edith is annoying Beth. Of course, the idea of losing me is upsetting enough, without being bothered by other people. Oh, dear!

la's was cherishing some strange cause of resentment against the girl. Naturally, nothing had been said by Mrs. Lingfield to lead him to that conclusion, but he had arrived at it none the less surely.

It was a matter which would have troubled hi myery little indeed had it not been for Drusilla herself. But it took on an important shape when he saw tear-stains on the face he loved, and that her brother had no intention of changing his views to please her, is to the material state of the material state.

It was a matter which would have troubled hi myery little indeed had it not been for Drusilla herself. But it took on an important shape when he saw tear-stains on the face he loved, and trallized that Mrs. Lingfield's curjous animosity had thrown a very fle-

she must see you tonight. She wants us to dine with her."

"I can't eat any dinner," said Drustilla mournfully. "I really have a fit of the blues. If you know of a nice convenient churchyard I will go and spend a few hours in it."

"It isn't a big party," said Lord Carlingford, "but Flora told me that she had some odds and ends of people coming in after dinner, and I believe she has some sort of entertainment on—thought-reading or conjuring, or something of that sort."

Drusilla clapped ther hands.

"Oh, Jim! how lovely! And shall I know all you are thinking about?"

"You know that already," the man said as he took her in his arms again.

"I am not so you tonight that that but to dine was not shy, but her manner was a little subdued as, one after another, people were brought up to her and introduced. After a while she found herself sitting beside a small woman wearing a white satin gown, a coronet of diamonds on her elaborately dressed hair, and any amount of jewels around her throat and neck.

"I am so glad to see you, Miss Heronworth," she said. "I missed you when I went down to Crowder Chase the other day to see my boy."

Drusilla said something, she hardly knew what. She was looking at Brian Keston's mother, at the little pinched and pointed parody of a face, at all the jewels which could be the convenient of the subdued as, one after another, people were brought up to her and introduced. After a while she found herself sitting beside a small woman wearing a white satin gown, a coronet of diamonds on her elaborately dressed hair, and any amount of jewels around her throat and neck.

"I am so glad to see you, Miss Heronworth," she said. "I missed you when I went down to Crowder Chase the other day to see my boy."

Drusilla said something, she hardly knew what. She was looking at Brian Keston's mother, at the little pinched and pointed parody of a face, at all the jewels which could here.

the other day to see my boy."

Drusilla said something, she hardly knew what. She was looking at Brian Keston's mother, at the little pinched and pointed parody of a face, at all the jewels which could not hide still the j the jewels which could not hide the ravages of advancing age; and her heart gave a thud as memory swept her back to the library at home, and she remembered how Keston had looked as he had spoken about his father. Even now the tone of his voice had lower to hurt her. There came to Drusilla a distinct repugnance for this little creature sitting beside her.

Lady Draycott was happily quite was conscious of this. She merely though Drashla thy and rather stantages "And how is my poor, dear quixotic Brian?" she inquired after a little. "I have not heard from him just lately." "I think Mr. Keston is quite well. He is working all the time. My sister does not know really what she would have done without him. He has been most invaluable. Lady Draycott laughed.

"So kind of you, dear Miss Heron-worth, to put it like that," she said; am-not going without you."
"So kind of you, dear Miss Heronam-not going without you."
"Sometimes," said Drusilla, half in earnest, "I am a little afraid of you, Jim. I do wish you had been a bank-clerk or somebody poor and of no account; then I should have felt that you really did belong to me, but—"
She broke off. "I had better go and tell Betth about tonight. I have a sort tell Betth about tonight. I have a sort tell betth about that she will want to eack out."
"Mr. Keston is an enthusiast." said

Drusilla, trying not to speak coldly. "I don't suppose he would ever be happy unless he were working." "But that is such a bourgeois idea." said Lady Dragyott, with her small,

ORIGINAL GENUINE BEWARE IMITATIONS SOLD ON THE MERITS

MINARD S