REV. DR. STAGKHOUSE

Secretary for Baptist Laymen's Minsionary Committee for Canada Offered Important Position Across the Line.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 22.—Rev. Dr. Stackhouse, secretary of the Canadian Baptist Laymen's Missionary Movement sent a wire from Winnipeg last night to Mr. J. N. Shenstone, chairman of the Baptist L. M. M. executive, stating that he had decided to accept the call of the northern Baptist convention of the United States to assume its field secrearyship. Dr. Stackhouse has been secretary of the Baptist movement in Canada for the past year and a half. He was considered a tower of strength in the movement by all laymen, and this decision on his part will be received with the greatest regret.

The offer is considered a great recognition of Dr. Stackhouse's executive ability, as the position to which he goes is one of prime importance in the movement. The Northern Baptist Convention is an amalgamation of three large committees in the States, the Home Missions, the Foreign Missions and the Publication Committee, which jointly appointed a committee of 150 of the picked laymen of the country to assist a field secretary. The field covers thirty-seven States, contributes over $1,000,000 to missions such year, and has already 700 missionaries in the foreign field.

The proverbial beaver could not be busier than the vote getters. Their efforts are contagious All know that it will take ballots to win, and they know that now is the time to get the ballots; the time for waiting and trusting to the Goddess of Fortune is gone. Every one who will win must guard every channel leading to the ballot box.

Organization is being perfected as the time draws near and every indication is that there will be a tremendous vote. To a casual observer this is more than evident. Already the ladies are being prompted by more experienced friends to pull every wire possible.

Archbishop's Palace, Quebec.
Dr. J. M. McKay:
Dear Sir:—Many reliable men, priests, monks and laymen, have often spoken to me of the splendid work you are performing with your treatment I congratulate you on that work if you have saved but one person from the vice of drunkenness I would say, "Thank you" But I know and have been able to ascertain myself that in Quebec, as well as in other parts of my diocese, there are many families that are indebted to you for the peace and happiness they at present enjoy. Therefore my heart is gladdened by the good you have done up to this time, and I want to encourage you most strongly to continue your work, and even to extend it, if possible.
