Calais 12, Marathons 3.

Special to The Standard.

Aug. 8.—Calais overwhelmingly defeated the fast Marathons here this afternoon by a score of 12 to 3. The locals outplayed the visitors from start to finish. Tarbell, the star Marathons twirler, was hit hard and with the whole infield playing ragged ball, could not stem the tide. Ryan was on the mound for the Calais team and pitched a heavy game.

Calais tallied two in the third and on account of a blowup in the fourth tallied four more. They came back with two in the fifth, one in the sixth and three in the eighth of the game. An unfortunate accident occurred in the eighth when Tarbell, the visitors' pitcher, stole second and caught his right foot in the strap of the bag receiving a badly sprained ankle. He was immediately taken to a physician and on account of the injury will be unable to play the rest of the season.

Winter twirled the last inning and was batted all over the lot. The features of the game were the heavy hitting of Neptune, Johnson, Cobb, Casey, Allen, Winter, Riley and Tarbell, the fielding of Rutherford and the sensational running play of McGarry. With enough fine plays to overshadow the errors, the spectators enjoyed the game despite the large score.

THE LOCAL BASEBALL SITUATION

The Woodstock baseball team arrived in the city yesterday morning despite the fact that Monday night they refused to come to the city and play ball with Evans as the umpire. It had been advertised that there would be no game and the baseball enthusiasts were not expecting one. Yesterday morning Umpire Daniel Connolly received a telegram stating that the Woodstock team would be on hand for a game of ball and that he should be on the grounds, and if the St. John's were not present, or refused to play, that the umpire should declare the game forfeited and awarded to the Woodstock team.

The St. John's were not present at the grounds nor was the umpire and when the Woodstock team arrived, about 2:30 o'clock, they found the grounds closed and the doors locked. The team waited on the outside until 3 o'clock and then returned to their hotel.

It is stated that the Carleton county team claim the game but Umpire Connolly has another view of the matter. He says that the team must be on the grounds and that one ball must be pitched over the plate before the game could be claimed. In this case the team were not on the grounds and had not lined up and accordingly there was no game.

Besides the Woodstock players there were only about a dozen others present including a couple of policemen. The managers of the two St. John's teams have requested Harry M. Blair, the secretary of the league to call a meeting of the league executive when the matter will be discussed, and for or that the meeting be held in Fredericton or McAdam. Mr. Blair said last night that he would notify the manager of the league and would have the meeting as soon as possible.

One of the propositions that will be placed before the executive is to have the arrangements for a five team league and drop the Woodstocks out of the league on the grounds that they had players who have been guilty of disorderly conduct. It is stated by the local management that Woodstock is the only team in the league who have had any difficulty with umpires.

The trouble between the Woodstock and the St. John teams will not affect the New Brunswick and Maine League games scheduled for Wednesday of the week in which the local teams take part. This afternoon the contenders will be St. John's and Marathons on the Marathons ground. The St. John's will be the pitchers for the St. John's, while it is expected that the Marathons will pitch Al Sweet. On Thursday the Marathons will go to Fredericton and play a postponed league game with Manager Duggan's players. Fredericton will be here for a game on Saturday afternoon which the Marathons will put their best team in the field.

JOHNSON
"PUGILISTIC RAFFLES"

Jack Johnson is likely to be dubbed the "Pugilistic Raffles." If a few more matches similar to those already arranged for him are pulled off, he will be a money maker. He is certainly getting some easy money, and in large bags at that. The latest mill, or rather joke, as it should be called, arranged with Bombardeur Wells, for $40,000, the fastest Johnson will go up against in many a day, and he had several other easy ones on top to while away his time abroad. First of these will be his meeting with Petty Officer Curran in Dublin next month, which will net him in the neighborhood of $25,000. Then will come the Wells battle in London, in September, and he is expected to have a conquest with Sam McVey in Paris before he returns next winter. There is some comfort in knowing that Johnson will import some of this good English and French coin.

Laura Merrill, 2:14 1/4, bm, Lantell—F. Duncan, Fairville.
Charley King, 2:14 1/4, blk.g., May King—F. B. Rideout, Medford, Mass.

Frank Patch, 2:14 1/4, bg, Patchen Boy—James Adams, Halifax.

JACK COPELAND HOME.
Cape Copeland, the well known baseball player who this season has been playing with a team in Halifax and latterly with a team in Yarmouth, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and is being warmly greeted by his numerous friends. He states that the teams in Yarmouth have been disbanded.

WONDERFUL UHLAN AGAIN!

Cleveland, Aug. 8.—Uhlan, the champion trotting gelding owned by C. K. Billings of New York, equalled the world's trotting record to wagon on the North Randall track here today, stepping the mile in two minutes flat.

HARDEST LESSON
FOR ATHLETES
TO LEARN

The hardest lesson for an athlete to learn is when to retire. It has always been considered human to crave for glory and power and a class that has proved intensely human are pugilistic champions. It is more than useless to argue with a once great fighter who has won the victor's crown and heard the acclaim of the multitude, that his day as a master of the squared circle is gone and that henceforth he must yield to the importunities of time.

Will the ring ever know a champion who will be sure when his days of usefulness are over? There is scarcely a champion in any class who has gone down in defeat at the hands of a better man who is willing to acknowledge the superiority of his antagonist. At the ringside, while the cheers of his opponents are ringing, the Black Terror who has felt the victorious impact of his bitter rival's gloves he may step forward and manfully confess that the better man has won, but in his heart the thought still obtains that he is the master.

New York, Aug. 7.—Harry Pollok is trying to drive Sam Langford to cover in an effort to bring about a meeting between the negro and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, who is the self-styled light heavyweight champion. In a letter to the sporting editor of the Tribune, Pollok says:—

"I have signed Jack O'Brien to box Sam Langford at the Twentieth Century A. C. at any date that may be suitable to the latter within the next three weeks, providing the Boston man is willing to make the light heavyweight limit of 168 pounds. It was upon Woodman's assurance that Langford would make any weight that was suitable to O'Brien that I went after the match, but notwithstanding this pledge, upon Woodman's part, he apparently has run out of his own proposition. I wired him three times and made him a handsome offer, but as yet have not been even favored with a reply. Langford is undoubtedly a won, but it is safe to bet that he weighs fully 180 pounds, and as I understand he has made a match with Jim Smith, it looks as if he wants to pick out all of the little fellows that he can and at the same time go into the ring himself a good sized heavyweight.

O'Brien has been training now for three weeks and is anxious to box Langford for the light heavyweight title."
