

Social Notes of the week

many friends will wish him much success in his banking career.

The Donald Fraser Memorial Sunday school of St. Paul's church took place last Sunday. Reverend Dr. Scott, an old friend of the late Mr. Fraser, attended the ceremonies. On Monday evening the Rev. Dr. gave a most interesting lecture on his trip around the world, which was accompanied by lantern slides.

The numerous friends of Lieutenant John T. Gibson were shocked to hear of his having been killed at his training school in England as a result of an accident. The sincere sympathy of the community goes out to his bereaved parents.

On Tuesday a Scotch concert was given at which many well known musical people took part. The proceeds of both these entertainments went toward defraying expenses of the furniture for the new building.

On Wednesday evening a reception was held and largely attended by members of St. Paul's and other denominations as well. A musical programme contributed much toward the entertainment of the evening.

Mrs. Ketchum, accompanied by Miss Stopford, spent a few days in Moncton last week.

Master Geoffrey Randolph came home from Rothesay for a few days last week.

Rehearsals are being held for the minstrel and variety show which the Annapolis Chapter, I. O. O. F., plan to give Easter week. All taking part are very enthusiastic to make it a success.

Miss V. M. Ryley of the Military Hospital Commission was a visitor in town this week.

Miss Margaret Howbyer of Sydney was the guest of Miss Helen Richardson at Bishopscote.

Miss Marion Bates of Newcastle, who has been the guest of Miss Margaret Wilkinson, Springfield, returned home on Monday last.

Miss Lillian Jones of Woodstock was a week-end guest of Miss Jean Van Bunkin.

Miss Bernice Hatfield of St. John was a guest of Major and Mrs. Osborne for a few days, returned home last Monday.

Miss Lillian Gerrard expects to leave shortly for Montreal to become a student nurse at the General Hospital there.

Miss Kathleen Shea was a young hostess last Friday evening, entertaining many of her high school friends. Dancing was enjoyed until midnight, when supper was served.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Harold H. Ritchie has returned from a very pleasant visit with friends in Montreal.

Mr. Clarence M. Sprague left last week for Winnipeg, where he holds a position in the Merchants' Bank of Canada, having been transferred from the office at Sherbrooke, Que.

Lieut. M. A. Orford of Woodstock has been selected as one of the Canadian officers who have been loaned to the United States military authorities by the Canadian militia department.

These officers are picked men, who have been on the firing line and will be used in the various training camps in the United States.

Professor J. H. Lindsay of Houlton, formerly of Woodstock, has been delighting the music lovers of Fredericton by his wonderful and exquisite rendering of a number of pipe organ selections in one of the city churches.

As it has truly been said of Prof. Lindsay, his very soul speaks from the pipe organ or piano. He is a son of John A. Lindsay of this town, and has the misfortune of being blind.

Mrs. George T. Holyoke and Miss Mary Burpee of Houlton, have been recent visitors in town.

Miss Elizabeth McCartin, provincial president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., has received a cheque for five hundred dollars from the National President of Chicago, the national president, in reply to Miss McCartin's letter, for relief of the afflicted sisters in Halifax.

Mrs. Charles Tuttle and little son, who have been spending the past few weeks with her mother, Mrs. James Ritchie, will return to her home in Vermont on Monday. Mrs. Woodworth has recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Marie Douglas and Mrs. Dorothy Lamb of St. Andrews are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gibson this week.

Mrs. Chester O. MacDonald entertained a few friends at dinner on Tuesday evening.

The returned soldiers gave an enjoyable dance at the Vogue Theatre on Monday night.

Mrs. C. L. Raymond's many friends are glad to know that she is recovering from the accident she met with recently.

Mrs. J. W. Scovil of St. Stephen is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Belyea, for a few days.

Mrs. F. W. Armour underwent a surgical operation at the Fisher Memorial Hospital on Tuesday morning; her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

The home of Mrs. Kingsford, Smythe street, was the scene of a pretty wedding.

ding Saturday afternoon, when her sister, Miss Hattie Alleyne Hanselaker, was united in marriage to Lieut. B. W. Harmon of the Royal Flying Corps.

The drawing room was prettily decorated with flags, the bride and groom standing under an arch formed of Canadian flags and Union Jacks. The bride, who was daintily groomed in white silk, with pearl trimmings, was given away by her aunt, Mrs. King-Lorn.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Helen Van Wart. Rev. P. R. Hayward of Fairville, brother-in-law of the groom, performed the ceremony, after which a dainty luncheon was served, the dining room being decorated with red, white and blue. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon left on the 6.30 train for Boston and New York. The bride travelled in a blue silk dress and wore a veil.

Both bride and groom are graduates of the U.N.B., being classmates of 1912. Lieut. Harmon only recently returned from England on a three months leave. The bride and groom have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Mrs. Harold H. Ritchie and little daughter, Marjorie, left for Sussex on Friday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Wetmore.

Mr. Dick Shaw of Skiff Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant. Hon. W. P. Jones is spending a few days in Fredericton.

Hon. F. B. Carvell and Mrs. Carvell presented the Red Cross Society with fifty dollars and have become life members.

The business meeting of the W. A. of St. Luke's church met at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Garden, Friday afternoon.

Burdette Harmon and Mrs. Harmon arrived in town from their wedding trip and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon, Elm street.

Miss Elizabeth Ketchum has returned from a delightful visit spent in Amherst and St. John.

Miss Gladys Smith has returned from France, where she has spent the past year the guest of her sister, Mrs. Miles. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant in the death of their only daughter, Elizabeth, which occurred Wednesday of last week. With her cheerful disposition and her attractive personality she made many friends, and her death is a great loss to her family and friends.

Misses McKown and Colwell, of Northampton, were visitors in town last week.

The music loving people are looking forward with interest to the arrival of a branch of the Chateaux Society which will give a series of concerts the last three days of February.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Feb. 15.—Mrs. W. E. B. T. had a few days in Moncton last week, guest of her mother-in-law Mrs. N. L. Rand.

Miss Alice Hickman of Mount Allison Ladies College, Sackville, spent the week-end in town, guest of her father, Mr. John H. Hickman.

Mrs. Philip Palmer and two children are spending a few days in St. John, guests of Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Teed.

Rev. F. G. Mackintosh of Sackville spent the week-end in town, guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacPherson.

Mrs. George Paynter left last week for New Jersey, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Gesner Kerr and Mr. Kerr.

The Women's Auxiliary of Holy Trinity church will hold a home cooking sale on Saturday next at the Windsor Hotel. Afternoon tea will be served from 4.30 until 6 P. M.

Misses Maynard and Helen Hutchings, of Mount Allison Ladies College, Sackville, were week-end guests of Captain and Mrs. L. H. Lockhart.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Feb. 14.—There was no meeting of the reading club this week. Next Monday evening Miss Ganong is to entertain the members and Mrs. Davidson will be the leader in the discussion of the lesson.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Pugsley received on Saturday afternoon at their residence, Rothesay, although the weather proved stormy a number of friends called. Visitors from the city were Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Miss Brown, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. George Fleming and Mrs. Haycock.

In the dining room Mrs. D. A. Pugsley presided at the prettily appointed table which was centered with pink roses. Mrs. Skuce and Miss Dollie Pugsley served. The Governor and Mrs. Pugsley occupied the table at home on the Saturdays of February moved.

Many friends are glad to see Mrs. Hibbard out again having been confined to the house for a short time.

Mrs. Charles Taylor arrived here from New York last Friday and is the guest of Mrs. Taylor, having come to attend the wedding of Mr. Fred Taylor and Miss Doris Sayre.

A few days last week Mrs. Walter Hall of Sydney, her son, Harris, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mackin. Mrs. Hall has been visiting her mother, Mrs. C. Robertson, St. John, before leaving for Michigan for a stay of several weeks with relatives.

Miss Mabel Thomson moved on Saturday into her pretty cottage on the "Rothesay" property.

During the absence of Mrs. John H. Thomson in Florida, Miss Pitcher is very efficiently acting as president of the Red Cross. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington were hostesses at the Red Cross tea.

Lieut. and Mrs. Crawford drove from St. John on Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleming at River side.

The marriage of Mr. Frederick R. Taylor and Miss Doris Sayre, which took place in St. John's church, on Tuesday afternoon was specially interesting here. Mr. Taylor has been for some time an all year resident of Rothesay, and Miss Sayre, with her parents, were in the summer home of Canadian flags and Union Jacks.

The monthly devotional and business meeting of the Women's Auxiliary was held on Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. A. W. Daniel.

Mrs. J. M. Skuce of Ottawa is here visiting Mrs. William Pugsley.

Te R. R. Bridge Club meets this evening at the home of Miss Zela Morton and Mr. Harry Morton, Renforth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McKean of Halifax have been at the Kennedy House for the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Skuce on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. McKim of St. John spent last week-end at Renforth, guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield on Wednesday entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Northcott of Toronto, other guests being Mrs. Allan McAvity, Mrs. J. L. McAvity, Mrs. Mary Warner, St. John, Mrs. Guy Robinson, Toronto; Miss Adams, St. John; Mrs. Fred Foster, Renforth, and Mrs. Royden Thomson of Rothesay.

Miss Brook of Montreal who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. McMillan, College Hill, left on Monday for home.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Feb. 15.—Lieut. A. C. Morton, who has just returned from France, spent the week-end here guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Morton.

Mrs. S. G. MacDougall, who has been visiting in Moncton, guest of Miss Margaret Price, has returned to town.

Lola Dykeman, of St. John, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. Carey Robinson, Allison avenue.

Mrs. W. Godfrey, who has been visiting at Chatham, N. B., guest of Mrs. Robert Godfrey, has returned home.

Rev. Charles White, who was en route to his home in Summerside, P. E. I., spent Sunday here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett.

Informally at tea on Friday entertained in honor of a few of the students of Mount Allison Ladies' College. Among those present were Miss Kathleen Doris Mahoney, Miss McLean, Miss Helen McMillan, Miss Greta Mettler, Miss Peggie Chapman, Miss Freda Davidson, Miss Ruth Wyse and Miss Miss Lucy Smith entertained a number of her friends at a very delightful snowshoe tramp on Thursday evening.

Miss Bessie Wright, teacher of grade two at grade three in the Sackville High School, is in receipt of a letter of appreciation from Dr. W. S. Carter, chief superintendent of education. Miss Wright has been teaching in district No. 9 for several years, doing her work in a way to merit the approval of her pupils, their parents and the district.

The letter speaks of Miss Wright's school as being of special excellence. It notes on the subject of arithmetic and also marks as excellent the classification of pupils, their proficiency and the character of her school as a whole.

Mayor and Mrs. H. M. Wood were hosts at a very pleasant dinner on Friday evening, when the guests included Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Bigelow, Mrs. W. Sprague, Vancouver, Mrs. S. G. MacDougall, Miss Lou Ford and Mr. H. A. Ford.

Mrs. Johnson Reid, of Joliceur, left Saturday for Carmel, Saskatchewan, where she will spend two months with her daughter, Mrs. James Cameron.

The young friends of Miss Marion Dixon were pleasantly entertained at a skating party Saturday evening at Copp's rink. After the rink the party was invited to the home of the young hostess where an hour or so was spent very pleasantly.

On Monday evening the Reading Club of the W. M. S. met with Mrs. J. C. Dixon and under the leadership of Mrs. Secord, the study of Japan was continued. Mrs. T. D. Hart gave Mrs. Northcott of Toronto was today (Thursday) guest of Mrs. A. W. McMillan for luncheon.

Among the boys who have this week returned to Canada from overseas, having done his bit well and suffered from gas and wounds, was Gunner Norman Dobbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbin, who will be home today. He was among the very first to go to France at the beginning of the war, just a boy, and the community will give him a glad welcome home where he has hosts of friends.

Miss Emma Christie is just now here guest of her niece Mrs. Fred Foster.

About twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan gathered at their home at Gondola Point on Saturday evening to express regret at their intended removal from New Brunswick to Alberta, which event is expected to take place about the first of March.

Mrs. Ryan has been organist of the church and active in Sunday school and all other good works and will be very greatly missed in the community. On behalf of those present Mrs. Ryan was presented with a handsome travelling bag and the best of good wishes for the future. Mr. Ryan has just lately returned from the west where he has "made good."

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Frink, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson and Mr. Hardy enjoyed an outing to Ray's Lake.

Very informally at the tea hour Mrs. and Miss Davidson had as guests Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. R. E. and Mrs. Puddington, Miss Mabel Gilbert.

Mrs. Dorothy Roach, Country Club Heights, Riverside, has been spending a day or two in St. John with her friend, Miss Kathleen Branscombe, Princess street and on Tuesday evening attended the sleigh drive and on high school, with a programme of refreshments at the Y.M.C.A. afterward.

Mrs. Beattie and Miss Dabrow were visitors from the city this week who were lunch and tea guests of Mrs. Rothwell.

Over the last week-end Miss Alice Davidson was in St. John, guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Daniel.

From Friday till Monday Miss Ethel enjoyed a visit to Mrs. and Miss Morton at Renforth.

That Mr. Albert Miles Saunders of Gondola Point is just now a patient in a St. John hospital is very sincerely regretted by hosts of friends throughout the parish all of whom hope and look for a quick recovery.

Mr. Roy Carrille left on Thursday last on a trip to Boston.

This evening Miss Hildred Rathburn is entertaining a few of her young friends at a birthday party. Those invited to enjoy coasting, music and games are Miss Thurber, Misses Hilda Williams, Muriel Anderson, Florence Holder, Alice Wheaton, Kit Heveron, Maude Pierce, Norah Banks, Greta Gribble, Grace Skiff, Gladys Price and the boys, George Barnes, Miss Heveron, Harry MacKinnon, Russell, Albert Hubbard, Gibbon, George Price, Alton Flewelling and Albert Monteth.

"Netherwood" is celebrating the festival of St. Valentine this evening and the day before, with the house girls enjoying themselves in the recreation room in aid of Red Cross work, which will certainly be well patronized.

Messrs. William and Stephen Pierce, born and brought up in Rothesay, have come home from the United States this week to enlist in the Canadian army for a righteous warfare and an enduring peace. Best wishes.

BAKER'S BREAKFAST COCOA

The food drink without a fault

Made of high grade cocoa beans, skilfully blended and manufactured by a perfect mechanical process, without the use of chemicals. It is absolutely pure and wholesome, and its flavor is delicious, the natural flavor of the cocoa bean.

The genuine bears this trade-mark and is made only by first intercollegiate debate in which Mount Allison took part. Colonel Day 93, who commanded another of the battalions of the Highland Brigade of the 18th, was also a member of that debating team, and it is our memory serves us right, the subject had to do with the nature and extent of sending aid from Canada to the Mother Country in time of war.

WALTER BAKER & CO. Limited.

Montreal, Can. Dorchester, Mass.

Colonel Borden has been wounded once while on duty. In Saturday's despatches Colonel Borden was mentioned as having received the decoration Distinguished Service Order.

Colonel Borden's wife is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Silliker, Amherst. Colonel Borden is a cousin of Premier Borden, and also of Dr. B. C. Borden, president of Mount Allison University.

Mrs. James Purdy, who for the past few years has been living in Vancouver, B. C., arrived in town last week, and will spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Phinney.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hittle, who have been residents of Sackville for two past two or three years, left Saturday for their former home in Calgary, leaving their two young daughters to remain for the winter with their grandmother, Mrs. F. A. Dixon.

Mrs. Hittle has been identified with various musical organizations, Mrs. Hittle being a member of the Sackville Methodist choir, and Mr. Hittle a member of the Citizens' Band, Mt. Allison and Imperial Orchestras. Mr. and Mrs. Hittle have many friends who sincerely regret their departure from Sackville.

On Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, the Methodist choir spent a social evening in honor of Mrs. Hittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hittle were accompanied by Miss Blanche Lund, who is soon to become the wife of Mr. Fred T. Silliker, formerly of Port Elgin, but now of Calgary.

Announcements have been received by relatives in Sackville of the marriage in Elmville, Ontario, on January 30th, of Meta Avar, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Wheatley, the bride's mother, Mrs. Wheatley, the late William Avar, daughter of the late William Avar, of Great Shogogue.

Miss Kathleen Fawcett is visiting in St. John, guest of Mrs. W. S. Fisher.

Though last Tuesday was intensely cold, yet thirty-four members of the W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of

W. M. S. met in the school room of the Methodist church for the annual Mite Box opening. After the singing of the Russian hymn, prayer and responsive sentences led by Mrs. Grolund the programme consisted of musical members at the piano. James McLatchey, eldest son of Rev. E. D. McLatchey, a former Sackville pastor, has joined the Royal Flying Corps, and will receive the necessary training in Toronto. For some months he has been a member of the 5th Siege Battery, now stationed at St. John.

A surprise party was tendered to Rev. and Mrs. McVie, Upper Point de Bute, at the Baptist parsonage last Thursday night. The members of the church from Joliceur and Point de Bute were present and a very enjoyable time was spent. Lunch was served by the ladies. A purse containing nearly $40 was presented to Mr. and Mrs. McVie as a token of the good will and appreciation of those present. Mr. McVie, in fitting words expressed his thanks for the kindness of the friends who had remembered himself and Mrs. McVie the party was arranged by Mrs. Thomas Dobson, of Joliceur, and Mrs. A. J. Wells, of Point de Bute, to whom much credit is due.

Mrs. A. B. Copp, who was hosts at a very enjoyable dinner party on Friday evening.

Miss Frances Dixon, of Moncton, spent the week-end at her home here. Mrs. George A. Fawcett entertained at dinner on Monday evening. The guests included Rev. H. E. and Mrs. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Secord and Col. and Mrs. Bedford Hapner.

Miss Doris Johnson is visiting friends in Moncton, N. B.

Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, and Mrs. C. Avar spent Saturday in Amherst. The memorial service held in the Presbyterian hall Sunday evening was most impressive. This service was held to pay tribute to Dr. Everett Scott, one time editor of the Tribune.

Harold Robertson, accountant in the Bank of Nova Scotia here two years, T. Silliker, formerly of Port Elgin, and Gordon Mott, three Mount Allison men. All of these made the supreme sacrifice, and the service last Sunday gave testimony to the high worth of one and all of these heroic fellows. Addresses were delivered by the pastor, Rev. F. G. Macintosh and Dr. Delano, of the Mount Allison faculty. The music was under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Copp, and a splendid success. Mrs. Baines sang an impressive selection to the tune of God Save the King.

Link up with the Edison Rotaphone—More duplicates, better done, more quickly—The Office Man's Printing Press—on the spot. A. Milne Fraser, Jas. A. Little, Mstr. Dock street, St. John, N. B.

C. P. R. TRAIN CHANGES.

Effective Monday, February 18th, train changes will be made in the Shore Line Service. Instead of every week day train will leave West St. John on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and returning train will leave St. Stephen on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

MEETING NOT HELD.

The meeting of the common council scheduled for yesterday morning to consider the report of R. A. MacIntyre, who audited the books of the New Brunswick Power Co., was held, as Mr. MacIntyre had not arrived home. It will probably be taken up on Monday morning.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

CONTAINS NO ALUM

It is a pure phosphate baking powder and is guaranteed by us to be the best and purest baking powder possible to produce.

The perfect leavening qualities of "Magic" combined with its purity and wholesomeness make it the ideal baking powder.

The ingredients are plainly printed on the label and our half century reputation should be sufficient guarantee of the high quality of these ingredients.

E.W. GILLET COMPANY LIMITED
WINNIPEG TORONTO, ONT. MONTREAL

PURITY FLOUR

Establishes the highest standard of quality ever attained in the manufacture of flour.

It contains an extraordinary amount of nourishment which makes its use a real economy.

More Bread and Better Bread—and Better Pastry, too.