

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph is issued every Wednesday and Saturday by The Telegraph Publishing Company, St. John, a company incorporated by Act of the Legislature of New Brunswick.

E. W. McCREADY, President and Manager. Subscription Rates: Sent by mail to any address in Canada at One Dollar a year.

Advertising Rates: Ordinary commercial advertisements taking the run of the paper, each insertion, $1.00 per inch.

Important Notice: All remittances must be sent by post office order or registered letter, and addressed to The Telegraph Publishing Company.

Authorized Agents: The following agents are authorized to canvass and collect for The Semi-Weekly Telegraph, viz.: MISS J. KRISTEAD, MISS Y. E. GIBSON.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH THE EVENING TIMES

New Brunswick's Independent Newspapers. These newspapers advocate: British connection, Honesty in public life, Measures for the material progress and moral advancement of our great Dominion.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 27, 1913.

ECONOMIC WASTE. Man has made great progress in overcoming waste and utilizing by-products in mills and factories.

MUST WATCH THEM. The more carefully the people consider the attitude of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association with regard to the tariff, the plainer it becomes that the consuming public must look sharply to their interests in the matter.

MOTORING IN AFRICA. It is not so very long ago that the announcement that it was proposed to construct a railway from the Cape to Cairo aroused the deepest interest all over the world.

THE RIGHTS OF THE AVERAGE CITIZEN. A Canadian Judge, in imposing a heavy fine the other day upon a foolish and reckless motor car driver, improved the opportunity to make a few welcome if true observations upon the rights of the average citizen.

THE POLICY OF SEDITION. When Gladstone was feeling his way toward a solution of the Irish question, he said: "Subject to the supremacy of the Crown, the unity of the Empire, and all the authority necessary to the conservation of that unity, every grant of portions of the country of enlarged powers for the management of their own affairs, was not a source of danger but a means of averting it."

FREE WHEAT AND FOOD PRICES. James Carruthers, one of the largest dealers in the Canadian wheat market, says there must be reciprocity in wheat.

NOTE AND COMMENT. How cheap life is in Chicago is shown by the records of the coroner's office, which has recorded the following numbers of "traffic deaths" and their causes during the last eight years.

A LONG STRUGGLE CLOSING. It is chiefly due to the impatience borne of a long exclusion from power that the Tory party is ready to appeal to mob-law as a means of forcing the hands of statesmen.

THINK IT OVER. The Conservative refusal to increase the British preference has placed that party in an unenviable position before the whole country.

ing with them an improved type of cinematograph camera, with which to secure a complete and living record of the trip.

How times have changed. The early African explorers took their lives in their hands and with their supplies on their backs tramped into the wilderness.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF WEALTH are not in cattle, or in field, forest or mine, nor even in the careful use of the by-products of the factory, but in happy and intelligent men and women.

A POOR EFFORT. A Junius in one of his letters, denied that he had called the Duke of Grafton a degenerate, in these words: "The character of the ancestors of some men has made it possible for them to be vicious in the extreme without being degenerate."

THE MONTEAL TRAGEDY. The Montreal Standard, which journal stands in the relation of paternal father or ancestor to its—contemporary published a picture called "The Three (Dis) Graces".

IN TORONTO some days ago, a citizen who was dining in a restaurant at night, the bill which was presented to him at the end of the meal, asserting that there was an overcharge.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND for more than 500 years has been one of almost unbroken political storm.

is utterly useless to scold the habitual offender, and that if it is useless also to this him or to give him the ordinary short jail sentence.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

them the type of political adviser he wants. The present government is to be forced into resignation.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

the following, from the Manitoba Free Press, and the need for saying it:

Remarks made by the city coroner of Manchester, England, at a recent inquest on the body of an old man knocked down and killed by a taxicab driver, show that the driver of the man thinks he owns the street and can run over the whole world.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

the following, from the Manitoba Free Press, and the need for saying it:

Remarks made by the city coroner of Manchester, England, at a recent inquest on the body of an old man knocked down and killed by a taxicab driver, show that the driver of the man thinks he owns the street and can run over the whole world.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

the following, from the Manitoba Free Press, and the need for saying it:

Remarks made by the city coroner of Manchester, England, at a recent inquest on the body of an old man knocked down and killed by a taxicab driver, show that the driver of the man thinks he owns the street and can run over the whole world.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

the following, from the Manitoba Free Press, and the need for saying it:

Remarks made by the city coroner of Manchester, England, at a recent inquest on the body of an old man knocked down and killed by a taxicab driver, show that the driver of the man thinks he owns the street and can run over the whole world.

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

THE STANDARD tells its readers that the "Grain Growers' Guide of Winnipeg is merely a mouthpiece of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that, therefore, its pronouncements upon the political issues of the day may be ignored."

HOW V Articles Will State duced the Sched

The Telegraph eating the commodities States under the new SORTED FROM THE EXPORTS IN LISTING DUTY UP THE NEW DUTY, and exported to the $85,544, poultry, $78,727, cream, $78,727, etc. These proportions of in Canadian exports articles and entirely.

- Books, photos, etc. Beef... Buckwheat... Corn... Oats... Kye... Wheat... Bran... Wheat Flour...

- Belgic (plain)... Cream (Port)... Clothing and wearing apparel... Coal... Binder twine... Apples... Berries... Furs (unpressed)... Hides and skins... Not fur cattle... Explosives and fulminates... (Sole) leather... (Upper) leather... Boots and Shoes... Harness and skins... Glycerine... Agricultural implements... Fertilizers... Steel... Sewing and manufacturing... Cans... Cream... Organs... Printing paper... Flax... Cheese... Bacon... Beans... Canned... Hams... Pork... Lard... Mutton... Beef... Poultry...

- Flax... Cattle... Wheat... Wheat Flour... Lumber... Horses... Oats... Barley... Flax Seed... Butter... Turkeys (canned)... Vegetables (canned)... Planks and boards... Western... Pickets and Shingles... Wood blocks... The exports of Canadian ports (no are shown in this...

- Flax... Cattle... Wheat... Wheat Flour... Lumber... Horses... Oats... Barley... Flax Seed... Butter... Turkeys (canned)... Vegetables (canned)... Planks and boards... Western... Pickets and Shingles... Wood blocks... The exports of Canadian ports (no are shown in this...

- Flax... Cattle... Wheat... Wheat Flour... Lumber... Horses... Oats... Barley... Flax Seed... Butter... Turkeys (canned)... Vegetables (canned)... Planks and boards... Western... Pickets and Shingles... Wood blocks... The exports of Canadian ports (no are shown in this...

- Flax... Cattle... Wheat... Wheat Flour... Lumber... Horses... Oats... Barley... Flax Seed... Butter... Turkeys (canned)... Vegetables (canned)... Planks and boards... Western... Pickets and Shingles... Wood blocks... The exports of Canadian ports (no are shown in this...

Fill a bottle with splinter over the me the suction will lose an easy matter to see

ABE MARTIN

For the first States aggregated $ bushel. With the d value, a large ex tables from Western potatoes to the Chi there is still a cons erable popular impo rted for the m reads thus: "WHEAT, W PRODUCTS A DURECTLY ON FIVE FOUR SEALS OF 1910 OF 1910 ON WHI WHEAT PRODUCED 'TES." This means th coming from Canadian wheat an there is also a ge duties on wheat schedule that do not new United States comes into effect on by the new tariff m