

subdued colours (big patch); Fort Vermillion, Alberta; Coppermine, NWT; Arviat, NWT; Grise Fiord, NWT; Camrose Detachment, Bella Coola Detachment; Cardston Detachment and "O" Division. Please contact:

David Nürnberg
Lepsiusstr. 29
12163 Berlin
Germany

ATTENTION COLLECTORS! A German police officer from the Dusseldorf Police Department wishes to start a collection of international police patches, badges, and other paraphernalia. Anyone interested in selling or trading material is encouraged to please contact:

Jordi Pons
Nordring 13
45701 Herten
Germany
E-Mail: wulf@ibm.net

ATTENTION PIN COLLECTORS! A retired police officer and an avid collector of anything related to the RCMP, who currently owns more than 1,200 different RCMP pins, is interested in acquiring more pins for his collection. Please write to:

Charles Bernier
509 St-Francois Xavier
Trois-Rivières, Quebec
G9A 1R3

INVENTORY OF RETIRED POLICE OFFICERS At the request of the United Nations, the RCMP is developing an inventory of retired police officers (all ranks) who could serve as technical advisors to developing police agencies internationally. Experience over the last several years has shown that the need for such resource people can come up at any time and can involve vastly different countries.

The list is not being developed to respond to any already-identified, specific need; rather, it is an attempt to be in a much bet-

All Quarterly readers are responsible to keep us informed of their change of address. We encourage all readers, especially RCMP employees, to purchase gift subscriptions for family members, neighbours, business affiliates or colleagues in other police forces who are interested in the RCMP and would be interested in reading the Quarterly.

"Once you start reading the Quarterly, you won't want to put it down!"