

Proviso.

satisfactory proof thereof to be given on oath, to adjudicate thereon as the justice of the case may require: Provided nevertheless, that such Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate shall not commit such Apprentice to any Jail for any longer time than one calendar month, with or without hard labour. 5

Master, &c. may not act as Magistrate.

XXII.—And be it enacted, That no Justice of the Peace, or Police Magistrate, being the Master of such Apprentice, or the partner, father, brother, or son of such Master, shall act as Justice of the Peace, or Police Magistrate under this Act. 10

What Magistrate qualified to act in certain cases.

XXIII.—And be it enacted, That in any county, city, town, or place where the Magistrates for the time being are disqualified by the next preceding section from administering this Act, then, in every such case, and so often as the same shall happen, it may be lawful for the adjoining Magistrate, or Magistrates, who are not disqualified, to administer, and they, or any of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to hear, examine, and determine any offences against the provisions of this Act, and do all Acts relating thereto in the same manner, and to the same extent as the disqualified Magistrates, except for such disqualification, might have done. 15 20

Name of repute sufficient in indictment, &c.

XXIV.—And be it enacted, That it shall not be deemed necessary in any indictment, information, summons or warrant issued against any person or party, for any offence against the provisions of this Act, to set forth the name or other designation of each and every of the partners in any firm or co-partnership, or individuals in any corporate body, society, or institution; but it shall be sufficient to insert therein the name, style, or title by which such firm or co-partnership, body corporate, society, or institution, is generally known. 25 30

What service or warrant good.

XXV.—And be it enacted, That the service of any summons or warrant on any of the proprietors, or the principal conductor, manager, or agent, of any such firm, co-partnership, body corporate, society, or institution, shall be good and lawful service. 35

Constable may apprehend offender against this Act any where in U. Canada.

XXVI.—And be it enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate shall, by virtue of this Act, issue a warrant for the apprehension of any person for any offence against such Act, and such person shall, within ten days before or after the granting of such 40