Bears go to finals in upset victory

by Tom Hayward

The Bears basketball squad finished their 1982-83 season in fine fashion this past weekend, defeating the Saint Francis Xavier X-Men 56-53, and losing a hard fought final to the University of Victoria Vikings, 83-67.

In the opening game against the St. Francis X-Men, the Bears played their finest home game of the year, receiving superlative efforts from Jay Loukes, Mike Kornak and Jim Pratt on defense, with strong support from Leon Bynoe and Fred Murrell on offence.

The final game, against the Vikings, was Leon Bynoe's final game as a Golden Bear. The Bears came out running, and surprised the Vikings, and several fans, by leading the game at the half, 39-33. The Vikings, with experience and The Vikings, with experience and size on their side, controlled the second half, as the Bears were unable to penetrate the Vikings zone defense. Then the Bears ran into foul trouble. In fact, the Vikings margin of victory, 16 points, exactly matches the number of points they scored on second half foul shots...

For next year, the Bears appear to have a solid nucleus about which to mold a national contender. Only Leon Bynoe, and possible Fred Murrel, who hopes to attend dental school next year, will be lost to Coach Heaney and
