Do you think Roy Neale did a good job as SRC President, and why?

Norman Guerette Arts 3

I don't think he's done anything at all, really, or very little. If he's done anything, I haven't experienced anything.

Reg Hayes Arts 3

I would say that he did an average job. He seemed capable. I didn't find him particularly outstanding.

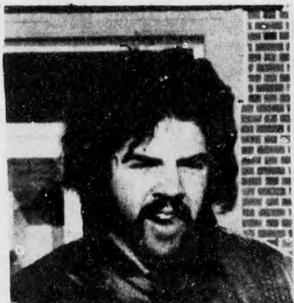

Rick Jackson Business 4

I haven't noticed any change in activities on this campus, I haven't seen any great improvement.

Allan MacAfee Science 4

As far as activities go, there was nothing at all to do during the week. Other than that, I think the organized flights at Christmas was a good idea.

Richard Riley Bus. 1

The University could use a little variety in social activities. The German Bierfest was a good idea.

Eric Hadley Forestry 4

As far as I know, he didn't do a bad job. I only heard the bad side of what he did, and very little about the good.

Faye Hamilton Arts 1

Yes, I do. I'm impressed with him, because he did a good job in uniting the students, and competent job in any activities he helped organize.

Roland Morrison Arts 4

I would say that Roy Neale has tried to do a good job, but he hasn't. He is spreading himself too thin with too many activities.

The Brunswickan still needs more staff. If you are interested in any aspect of your newspaper we welcome your help. If you can't do any actual work, perhaps you have some ideas for us. Either way, drop in and see us. We're approachable!

Carnie activities beginning to shape up well

The traditional Winter Carnival parade which will be held this year on Saturday, Feb. 3, is shaping up well, according to its organizer Rod Vaughan. More than 25 participants will take part.

Trophies will be given for the best floats in three categories: faculties, residences, and clubs. This year the competition is spurred on by a keen rivalry between such faculties as Business and Engineering, and the parade this year will feature a float combining the efforts of two odd bedfellows, namely the BRUNS and CHSR.

Anyone interested in helping out with a float should contact their faculty or house representative, and there is still time to enter a float in the competition by contacting Rod Vaughan at 472-7775 or at the SRC office.

Vaughan also interested in getting some help in organizing the parade, and anyone who wants to fill up that important blank space under extra-curricular activities on their job application forms should get in touch with him right away.
