

Business at St. Louis and as had ^{the} expectation of Luxembourg — we have nothing new from England — I have enclosed a Packet with the papers Col. McKee Left at Lumber as I do this and his Letter of this date to my Son at Niagara with Directions to forward them without delay. I have also sent him the form of the Receipt intended to you, and desired him to follow the former mode of ^{making} up the Quarterly Accounts; I hope soon to hear what papers between Mr Wayne and the Indians — have been told that the Land Jobbers at Detroit hope to get the Indians to insist that the Americans shall admit of the late sales of Lands being confirmed before they make peace with them, give my best Respects to Capt. Elliott, Mr. Levee my Daughter & John who happens to be in Town desire their best Respects to you and desire you will present the same to Col. McKee, you both have my most earnest wishes for your health,