Ottawa, March 5, 1926.

Honourable D.O. L'Esperance,
Montreal.

My dear Senator:

I am still getting disturbing news from Quebec, but nevertheless do not intend to be discouraged. One letter just received contains the following two paragraphs:

"Our friends here want to take action; I have been urging them to postpone their impatience. It cannot be kept in bonds much longer and I would humbly suggest that if you could come here and meet all camps, Senator L'Esperance being present, perhaps we could reach a solution."

What do think of the idea of the two of us going down to Quebec together? If you think well of it I think I could go the end of next week.

Have heard not a word from General Smart and it is now nearly six o'clock Friday afternoon.

Yours very truly,
