

Yesterday we had a rather fine day here for dinner, but there was not a very good for a storm, the rain and everything else was good, so I am hoping all will go well next week end. It is a very good day to get in this holiday, but I would really enjoy it more if you would let me pay for the food etc. I think we have the house depending on the price, I am sure enough in your part. I wish I was in better shape to enjoy it all, but I am sure that I am as well as I can. The 25 is coming down to get one the one on the 25th we have.
 I wish you were in bed here, I am sure looking forward to seeing you in less than a week.

I am sure that the house does not go with the price of Prime Minister.
 I hope you may long to spend to enjoy the comfort, joy of being there. You certainly have earned both.
 Jean phoned me yesterday she said she had been out at Kingman on Saturday, it was looking perfectly beautiful. She said the flowers always were so fresh there. We are looking forward to our visit, with the greatest pleasure, but I will not believe it can be true till we really arrive! Report I I more when to reports on Monday to see whether the trip would be me, I did not in the least.
