LECTURES.

Three interesting and instructive lectures were given during the year.

On "Rubinstein," by Mr. Joseph Gould, March 15th, with vocal and instrumental examples.

On "Portrait Painting" by Prof. John C. Van Dyke, of New Brunswick, N.J., with numerous lantern views.

On "Early Italian Art" by Rev. W. S. Barnes, Dec. 7th, with many fine illustrations exhibited with a new and powerful electric lantern.

These were fully appreciated by the very large number who attended.
