

1833. 3d Month,

MARCH,

Begins on Friday

Again, in gentle warmth, the sun's impartial beams
 Expels the frost—unbids the fettered streams ;
 Gives life to herbage ; and the pleasant flower
 Bursts into life and smiles away its hour ;
 The cheerful bird salutes each dawning day,
 Extends his wings and skips from spray to spray,
 Soars thro' the air, the clear expanse of blue,
 Then drops his plumes and sips the morning dew ;
