FOR PUBLIC CONSIDERATION.

It is an instance has prevalent infatuation been profactive more deplorable consequences, than the blind concession that the members of the medical profession alone are competent to administer remedies for disease. The general countenance which is given to this preposterous pretension of an interested class, is one of the most prolific sources of disease, suffering, and early death. How many thousands of persons there are, at the moment suffering their constitutions to be the in-dicious in our almost every variety of human malady, from their reluctance to incur the expense of consulting a physician, and from their silly prejudice against the most simple medicines, unless sanctioned by the mystic authority of a pretendedly learned prescription! If they could see that prescription in plain English, they would find, in a vast majority of cases that it ordered nothing in the world but a little rhubarb or senna or jalap, or sloe, mixed with sugar and water, and mystified with a little peppermint, or some other senseless drug; and a simple cathartic like this is generally efficacious. But the druggist keeps the prescription, and when the patient gets ill again he has again to consult the physician, instead of procuring for himself, at a mere fraction of the original expense, the wonderful remedy which had relieved him. It is that a majority of the population of every civilized country suffer disease to work its insidious way into their system, because the relief they have from medical aid is at once expensive, transitory, and difficult of access; and thus is exemplified the memorable confession of an eminent physician, that "Prescriptions in the Roman language have indirectly killed more than all the Roman armies." A medicine so compounded that it will cleanse the alimentary canal of all its feeble accumulations and incumbrances, give a new and invigorating action to all the viscera that contribute their agency to the digestive functions, and by promoting the insensible perspiration, relieve the whole system of febrile and inflammatory symptoms, must necessarily prove a great blessing to mankind, if rendered at a price which places it within the reach of all classes. If it have an extensive sale, it cannot fail to work more cures, and to do far more general good, than all the members of the medical profession combined can possibly accomplish within the comparatively narrow limits of their private practice. Such a medicine the public has in MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHENIX BITTERS, the efficacy of which are established throughout the United States, and voluntarily certified by thousands of individuals whom they have relieved and cured. It is in vain that the interested denouncers of popular medicines attempt to include these in their indiscriminate opprobrium.
Facts best theories and are more stubborn even than prejudices. Could the most eminent and successful physician that ever lived collect so many testimonials of remarkable cures, and of so extensive an alleviation of suffering under an almost endemic variety of human diseases as have been spontaneously presented to the proprietors, of MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHENIX BITTERS during the last two years? He believes not, and would be happy to put the question to the test.

The pre-eminence reputation of these medicines being firmly established upon the basis of innumerable facts, it only remains necessary to inform persons who are unacquainted with them of some among the multitude of maladies in which they have repeatedly proved successful, and in which, therefore, it may confidently be presumed they will succeed hereafter: 1. Dyspepsia, both chronic and acute, under the worst symptoms of restlessness and pain, flatulency head-ache, nausea, loss of appetite, general debility, and wasting away of the body. 2. Diarrhoea, whether feculent, mucous, serous, hien-terious, bilious, or tubular. 3. Jaundice, both bilinary and spasmodic, hepatic, infantile, and of the dark green variety. 4. Helminthia, or worms, both albino and anal, and of every variety, from the large tape and joint worm to the insect larvae of the stomach and rectum. 5. Piles, of the blood, the bleeding, the white and the caruncular varieties. 6. Constipation, whether arising from constipation or obstruction, and of however long standing. 7. Colic, the iliac, the painter's, the constipated, the constructive, and flatulent. 8.
Coughs, the common or humid cough, and the dry and the whooping cough. 9. Asthma, the nervous or dry and common or humid. 10. The Breast pang, acute and chronic; and also Pleurisy, acute or chronic pain in the side. 11. The Daily Fever, whether of the mild, the acute, or the sweating variety. 12. Fever and Ague. 13. Influenza, in any stage. 14. Dysentery, acute and chronic. 15.
Rheumatism, acute and chronic, together with gonorrhoea, or gout. 16. Marasmus, whether as general atrophy or loss of flesh, or pulmonary decline and consumption, if taken before cavities have been formed in the lungs. 17. Scrofula—singularly and rapidly efficacious even in the worst cases. 18.
Nervy. 19. Hypochondriasis, and all other nervous affections. 20. Spasmodic Palpitation, of the heart and of the arteries. 21. Head-ache.

It is evident, therefore, that these medicines are compounded of ingredients which act upon the system universally, and not mere local preparations. They act without causing pain, but con-trarily, strengthen, invigorate and calisten, from the first day's experience of their operation, until the period of convalescence. Directions for use accompany them.
All post paid letters will receive immediate attention.
Sold wholesale and retail by WM. B. MOFFAT, 367 Broadway, N. Y. A liberal deduction made to those who purchase to sell again.
BEGG & URQUHART.
N. B. The Life Medicines may also be had of the principal druggists in every town throughout the United States and in the Canadas. Ask for Moffat's Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters; and be sure that a fee simile of John Moffat's signature is upon the label of each bottle of bitters and box of pills.

PILES, DROPSY, SWELLINGS, AND SORES, RHEUMATISM.

It is absolutely asserted on the most positive proof that the above complaints are arrested and cured by the timely use of Hay's Liniment. It is impossible to find room in this paper to present those proofs which are conclusive and convincing. The true article has a splendid engraved wrapper with agents' and proprietor's name,

HEADACHE.

DR. E. SPOHN, a German physician of much note, having devoted his attention for some years to the cure and removal of the causes of NERVOUS AND SICK HEAD-ACHE, has the satisfaction to make known, that he has a remedy which by removing the causes cures effectually and permanently this distressing complaint. There are many families who have considered Sick Headache a constitutional incurable family complaint. Dr.
S. assures them that they are mistaken, and labouring under distress which they might not fully alleviate, but actually eradicate by the use of his remedy. It is the result of scientific research, and is entirely of a different character from advertised patent medicine, and is not unpleasant to the taste. To be had of CALEDONIA SPRINGS.

THE favorable opinion I formerly en-tained of the waters of the Caledonia Springs is MORE than CONFIRMED, as we from the benefits I personally derived from the use, as from what I observed of their effects on others. The water should be drank in moderate quantities before breakfast, and persevered in for some weeks at least.
