

ANGLICAN CHURCH OF CANADA

GENERAL SYNOD, ARCHIVES

Algoma Quarterly,

DECEMBER 1st, 1874.

THE object of this Paper, 1500 copies of which are issued quarterly, is to afford information about our Missionary work in Algoma to all our friends who are helping us. For the support of our Missions we depend on the alms of the Church.

General Remarks.

Our sun peeps in and out of the clouds. We hardly know yet whether we have gained a sure footing or not. But God, who feeds the ravens and clothes the flowers of the field, has cared for us thus far, and has not suffered us to want. To-day we have bread.—To-morrow—Well, we trust in God to supply our needs.

A very satisfactory Missionary Meeting was held in Montreal at the time of the Provincial Synod, and our Bishop met with a more hearty response to his appeal for help than he has perhaps had at all before. The amount subscribed was as follows:—

Christ Church Cathedral.....	$105 77
St. James the Apostle	152 20
At Missionary Meeting.....	300 78
By private individuals.....	655 50
Total.....	$1213 75

Not less satisfactory was the kind offer of Mrs. Simpson to act as Secretary-Treasurer in Montreal for the Algoma Diocese, in the place of the late Rev. George Slack, whose death was noticed in the last Quarterly.

It was also cheering to the Bishop while in Montreal to find that friends in the Maritime Provinces were prepared to lend a helping hand and assist him in his work.
