Price, only 50c., postpaid

CANADIAN SERVICE FLAG

It will be hung in homes to denote that some loved one,—father, husband, son, brother or sister is serving "over there."

The Canadian Service Flag is simple. It is beautiful. The broad border is red—blue Maple Leaves on the white centre indicate the number of men or women on active service for Canada and the Empire.

Sunday Schools, Churches, Young People's Societies, Bible Classes, and other organizations will honor their members who are in khaki by displaying a Service Flag, with a Maple Leaf for each member serving.

Styles and Prices (Cotton):

6" x 8" mounted on stick,	10c., postpaid.
9" x 14" mounted on stick,	15c., postpaid.
12" x 16" with metal hanger,	25c., postpaid.
22" x 35" with metal hanger,	75c., postpaid.

Specify number of leaves wanted, 1, 2, 3 or 4.

Prices will be quoted for larger Service Flags for Sunday Schools, Churches, Societies, etc.

THE FLAG

Its Origin and Meaning

How few of us are familiar with the origin and meaning of the Union Jack! What is the reason?—we have never been told. "The Flag" gives in a concise way the History of the Union Jack, Blue and White Ensigns and the Canadian Ensign. It is handsomely illustrated with 20 accurate reproductions in their true colors.

Make a short address on the Flag part of your Patriotic Day Service, using a copy of "The Flag" (in sheet form), to put up on the wall, to show the various forms in which our Flag has appeared.

Every Sunday School should have a copy of this interesting and instructive handbook. Many will want a copy of the Vest Pocket edition for personal use.

Vest Pocket edition, as illustrated, 25c. postpaid.

In Sheet Form, folded in cover, 25c. postpaid.

SERVICE PINS

Everyone who has a loved one serving "over there"—father, husband, son, brother or sister, or perhaps a sweetheart will want one of these Canadian Service Pins. Those illustrated are gold-plated with beautiful enameled design. The border is red,—blue Maple Leaves on the white centre indicate the number of loved ones on active service. Can also be supplied with four leaves, size 9-16 x 5-16 inch.

Price, 25c. postpaid.
