The martial spirit shown by the Irish race at all periods of history and in all countries is strikingly in evidence in what we may term-mi niature form-in St. Ann's parish Montreal in the ranks of the Cad ets. Organized about four years ago by the Rev. Redemptorist Fa thers for the better protection of the boys who leave school too young t be admitted into the Young Men' Society of the parish. Many boys go to work about the age of 14, and as they are not eligible to the Se nior Society until the age of 18 these little fellows were lost sight influence met with occasionally in the workshops and factories. It was with a view to safeguard this class that the Cadet corps was organized It presents many attractions, and is perhaps the only means by which youths in their teens can be held to gether in society. Their Sunday meetings keep them in reach of their clergy who take advantage of this opportunity to keep alive in their minds the principles taught them in the school room, and the necessity of strict adherence to their spiritual duties in order to preserve them selves from the dangers to which they are exposed. It requires labor and money to carry on the organiz ation, but the zeal and devotedines and the Christian Brothers hav proved equal to the occasion The generous co-operation of the pa rents, and the interest taken in the boys by our representatives have contributed much to make the under taking a success. Thanks to the influence of Hon. Dr. Guerin, M.P., and Ald. D. Gallery, M.P., the Dominio Government has furnished arms two companies. St. Ann's Temper ance Society furnished rifles for the School Company; and Sergeant-Ma jor Philips has induced the Militia Department to grant arms for a 4th Company, and thus form the corps into a regular battalion

At present the corps numbers near ly 200 members, and it is an edifying

The Week In Ireland.

THE CASTLE ATTACKS. - The United Irish League is no longer the sole object of the Castle attack. The Lord Lieutenant and his advisers have developed a new plan of campaign, and in addition to fighting the popular organization, they have now decided to make an onslaught on the councils constituted under the Local Government Act. The first of these bodies to receive the attention of the Coercionists is the Millstreet Urban Council, three of whose mem bers are charged with the awful offence of referring to landgrabbing at a recent meeting. This development of the Castle policy will be watched with interest, and we have no doubt that one of its first results will be to make every County and District book, in which, it is Council in the country more determinute was inserted mined than ever to stamp out the pernicious system of landgrabbing If Mr. Wyndham, Chief Secretary for Ireland, hopes to intimidate the representatives of the people by his latest form of attack he will have all his work cut out for him.

COERCION IN THE SOUTH. -Dublin Castle has opened its attack on the popularly-elected bodies. The chairman and two members of the local District Council have been summoned to attend a Coercion occupation of certain lands. Mr. Court at Millstreet, the offence with Flanagan was sentenced to four which they are charged being that they were concerned in the passing of a resolution, referring to landgrabbers and graziers, at a meeting of the Council held last February The defendants are :- Messrs. J. J Corkerry, J.P.; M. Fitzpatrick, and P. J. Rahilly. The Clerk and Assist ant-Clerk of the Union have been supposed to produce the minute book, in which, it is alleged, the COERCION IN TIPPERARY.- At Roscrea, on 18th May, before Messrs. Horne and Dease, R.M.'s, the hearing was resumed, under the Crimes Act, of the prosecution of the following persons for having taken part in an unlawful conspiracy :- Messrs.
