The most amusing man in the world is a Frenchman trying to vent his rage in English: "By gar, you call me vife a voman three several times once more, and I vill call the vatch house and blow off your brain like a candle."

"I have little about me, but that little we will share," said a Dublin queen's coun-sel to an ugly customer who, with a menacing air, asked for alms at night in a lonely suburb. "This revolver," said the Q. C., as he drew it from his pocket, "has suchambers. I will give you three." Just then the Q. C. found himself all alone.

"Nice weather for core," said a minister to one of his parishioners. "Yes, said the old furmer, "but but for grain and grass. "A lew days later they met and grass. "A few days later they met again. "A fine rain we had yesterday," said the minister; "good for grass and grain." "Yee," s id the old farmer, "but awfullad for corn."

"Who is he? asked a passer-by of a po-"Who is hef asked a passer-by of a policeman who was endeavoing to lift a drunken man from the gutter. "Can't say, sir," replied the officer; "he can't give any account of himself. "Of course not," rejoined the stranger. "How can you expect an account from a man who has lost his balance?"

A Galveston man went to the market A Galveston man went to the market to get a fish for dinner. The price asked was high, and the fish did not look as if it was quite fresh, and he so told the fish dealer; whereupon that worthy pulled open the fish's gills to show they were red, which is regarded as an unfailing test of freshness. "I see they are red, but a fish that has been dead a week would blush to hear the price you ask for it.—Galveston hear the price you ask for it.—Galveston hear the price you ask for it. - Galveston

A minister at a colored wedding, who wished to be humorous, said: "On such occasions it is cust mary to kiss the bride, but on this occasion we will omit it." To which ungailant remark the bridegroom pertinently replied: "On such occasions it is customary to pay the minister ten dollars, but in this case we will omit it."

congregation. While the congregation at d pastor were at dagger's points, the latter received an appointment as chaplain of a penitentiary. When he came to preach his farewell sermon, he took the following verse for his text: "I go to prepare a place for you, so that where I am ye may be

A priest who was examining a Confirma-tion class in the South of Ireland, asked the question:

"What is the Sacrament of Matrimony?"
"What is the Sacrament of Matrimony?" A little girl at the head of her class answered. "Tis a state of torment into which souls enter to prepare them for another and better world.

"Being," said the priest " the answer for Purgatory."

for Purgatory."

"Put her down," says the curate, "put her down to the foot of the class."

"Leave her alone," said the priest, "for anything you or I know to the contrary; she may be perfectly right."

"Anything Fresh this Morning?" "Anything new or fresh this morning?" a reporter asked in a railroad office. "Yes," replied the lone occupant of the apartment.

"What is it?" queried the reporter whipping out his note-book. Said the railroad man, edging his way toward the door, "That paint you are leaning gainst."

The railroad man is now in the hospital, and the reporter is in jail.

See what the Clergy say.

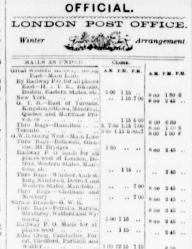

Rev. R. H. CRAIG, Princeton, N. J., Last summer when I was in Canada, I cought a bad cold in my throat. It became so bad that often in the middle of my sermon my throat and tongue would become so dry I could hardly speak. My tongue was covered with a white parched crust, and my throat was much inflamed. An old lady of my congregation advised me to use the Shoshonees Remedy, which she was using. The first dose relieved me, and in a few days my throat was nearly well. I discontinued the use of it, but my throat not being entirely well became worse again. I procured another supply, and am happy to say that my throat is en-tirely well, and the white crust has entirely disappeared. I wish that every minister who suffers from sore throat would try the Great Shoshonees Remedy.

Rev. Geo. W. Grout, Stirling, Ont., says.

Mas. Georger Fr neis was severely afflicted with Kidne disease, and had been under the care of three physicians without any beneficial result. She has since taken four bottles of the Shoshonees Remedy, and your private heart of health. and now enjoys the best of health.

Rev. T. C. Črown, Brooklyn, Ont., says: My wife was very low with Lung disease, and given up by her physician. I bought a bottle of the Shoshonees Remedy, and at the end of two days she was much better. By continuing the Remedy she was perfectly restored.
