THE CATHOLIC CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF CANADA

LOOKING BACKWARD The financial year of the Catholic Church Extension Society came to a close the last day in February. Looking over the twelve months past, we wish to express our satisfaction at the results achieved and at the same time our sincere thanks to the Catholics throughout Canada who are responsible for the success obtained...

During 1918-1919 we received from the above mentioned Canadian dioceses about $17,000. This amount was collected in the parishes. This year, 1919-1920 our books show that the diocesan collections amount to at least double those of last year.

When the clergy, wholeheartedly approve of a religious work and do not kill it by mere tolerations and indifference, it is not long before the Catholic lay line up quickly and strongly behind it and impart that vim and vigor that makes for the glory of God and the salvation of souls. This is the story of Extension during the year 1919-1920.

There is a fascination in the mere mention of Palestine and Holy Land. It is a country redolent of holy memories. It was there that our Saviour was born, there that He lived, and preached, and wrought His many miracles; there that He died and finally rose to life again. In almost every nook and corner of its many villages you cannot stir a stone but you start a souvenir. No wonder that even those who are not friendly to the Catholic faith admit that the whole country lies bathed in a magic light of spiritual memories far more beautiful than the wondrous glory of its radiant sunshine.

PALESTINE AND HOLY PLACES The Rev. Father Matthew, Commissary for the Holy Land, 79 Bolton St., Ottawa.

PRAYER FOR THE PRIEST Have you ever said a prayer for your priest? He deserves it—and he desires it. Your thought that he does not need it is complimentary, but he wants it. Cut out the following prayer and place it in your prayer book: "O Jesus Eternal Priest, keep this Thy servant within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart, where none may harm him. "Keep unstilled his anointed hands which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. "Keep unstilled the lips purpled with Thy Precious Blood. "Keep pure and unceasingly a heart sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious priesthood. "Let Thy holy love surround him, and shield him from the world's contagion. "Bless his labor with abundant fruit, and may he to whom he has ministered here his joy and consolation, and in heaven his beautiful and everlasting crown."—Amen.
