
British Columbia Monthly

(Continuing "Westminster Review," Vancouver)

VOLUME XIV

VANCOUVER, B. C., NOVEMBER, 1918

No. 2

THE SOCIAL, LITERARY AND RELIGIOUS MAGAZINE
OF THE CANADIAN WEST

CONTENTS
NOTES OF THE MONTH

EDITORIAL

SOME THINGS WE WOULD RATHER NOT CRITICISE:

THE NERVE AND FOLLY OF THE HUMAN FLY

GAMBLING FOR VICTORY BONDS

THE SKID ROAD AND CIGAR STAND GAMBLING

A CITIZENS' WELFARE ASSOCIATION?

THE RELATION OF THE CHURCH TO CAPITAL AND LABOUR

By REV. JAS. CARRUTHERS

THE NEW CONCEPTION OF EDUCATION

By MISS MARGARET ROSS

THE BOOK WORLD:

A NEW POEM BY A BRITISH COLUMBIA WRITER

By ROBERT ALLISON HOOD

THE EPIC BOOK OF THE CANADIAN WEST

By FRANCIS J. DICKIE

"THEN CAME THE WAR"

By W. H. BRIDGE

"ONE OF GOD'S GOOD MEN"

A Friendly Tribute to the late Lieutenant Houston
By D. A. CHALMERS

"THE GOLD STRIPE" AND ITS COMPILER
(Contributed)

ABRACADABRA
The Wayside Philosopher

RECONSTRUCTION AND PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION
By GARFIELD A. KING

PUBLISHING OFFICE: 1317 HARO STREET, VANCOUVER, B. C.