House in committee.

Colonel Billopp in the chair.

The Speaker resumed the chair—and the chairman reported that the committee had gone through the address and agreed to the same with some amendments—which being read was agreed to as amended and ordered to be engrossed as follows:

Report of the committee.

“To His Excellency THOMAS CARLETON, Esquire,
“LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR and COMMANDER in CHIEF
“of the province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

Address of the House.

The humble Address of the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

“May it please your Excellency!

“WE the Assembly of the province of New-Brunswick,
“beg leave to express our grateful sense of your Ex-
“cellency’s intention that the time of our attendance on public
“duty should be least inconvenient to our private affairs.

“We derive the highest satisfaction from your Excellency’s
“information that the former sessions have made such provision
“for the various exigencies of the province as to render the re-
“newal of such temporary laws as may require to be re-enacted,
“and such amendments to them as may be necessary, the princi“pal business you have thought proper to recommend to our “particular attention: These laws will be the objects of our “immediate consideration.

“Sensible of the importance of a communication by proper
“roads with Fredericton, we shall not fail to give every encou“ragement in our power to attain so desirable an end.

“We and our constituents, have participated with the most “heartfelt satisfaction in the universal joy and thankfulness for
“the re-establishment of the health of our most gracious sove“reign, whose life is dear beyond expression to all his subjects in “this province as well as throughout his extensive dominions:
“We cheerfully return your Excellency’s congratulations on
“this happy event and join in most earnest prayers to the Su“preme Governor of the Universe that we may long enjoy his “paternal protection, and that our exertions may be blessed
“with success equal to the royal wishes.”

The Treasurer according to order attended, and laid his accounts before the house.

The Treasurer attended.

Ordered, That Mr. Robert Pagan, Major Murray and Major
Coffin be a committee to examine the same and report thereon.
