Items of Interest.

It is said that a Chinaman never swears when he gets angry, because there are no cuss words in his dictionary.
He simply upsets his washtub, butts the bottom out, kicks a dog and feels better.

Some towns get so tight fistled and hide-bound that when a dollar makes its way into it it goes out of circulation altogether. As a general rule the town soon goes the same way. Can you blame it?

A remarkable will with fifteen codic-ils was filed in New York the other day, by Mr. Frank Work, an American millionaire. Mr. Work leaves an estate of about $20,000,000. He made his will in 1901, and whenever a daughter or her household pleased or displeased him he added a codicil expressive of his feelings at the time. The result is a bundle of documents weighing two pounds.

A panther's den with ten kittens cud-dled up in it was found a few days ago on the ranch of H. T. Richards, a few miles west of South Bend in Nebraska.
Mr. Richards and some of his men noticed a cave in the side of the canon.
After enlarging the opening one of the men, Grover Otte, entered. Back in the cave ten or twelve feet he found the ten kittens. When one of them was brought to the entrance it was found to be a baby panther. Mr. Otte is now raising the kittens at his home. Since the discovery of the kittens neither of the parent animals has been seen.
Farmers, however, are complaining about the mysterious disappearance of lambs and chickens.

A pleasing story comes from Beverly, N. J. Two years ago Mrs. Ellen MacCurdy, of South Beverly, believed the story a tramp told her, when he begged for food, that if she would loan him a dollar it would help him on his way to Wheeling, W. Va., where he had a family, and if he reached home, he would swear off drinking. The other night she received a letter, enclosing a $10 bill, thanking her for her kindness, and stating that he had given up drinking and gone back to his family.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

The railways reported 107 carloads of live stock at the City Yards, consisting of 1511 cattle, 1686 hogs, 836 sheep and lambs, and 569 calves.

The quality of fat cattle was again good, some extra choice lots being on sale.

Trade was brisk, with prices fully as firm, and in some instances 10c per cwt. higher than on Monday, and everything cleaned up before the noon hour.

Exporters.—There were seven or eight loads of good to choice exporters sold at $5.90 to $6.25. The two best loads were brought in by Wm. Stinson of Gorrie and B. Kerwin of Clifford. Mr. Stin-son's load sold at $6.25, and Mr. Kerwin's load was bought by McDonald & Halligan at $6.20, and re-sold by them to the Harris Abattoir Company at $6.00 per cwt.

Butchers.—Prime picked lots of butchers' cattle sold at $6. to $6.10, and one extra choice lot of six cattle at $6.25; loads of good to choice, $5.70 to $5.95; medium, $5.40 to $5.65; cows, $4 to $5.40 bulls $4 to $5.10.

Stockers and Feeders.—Snort-keep feeders, $5.60 to $5.75; feeders, 850 to 1000 lbs., $5.35 to $5.55; stockers, $4.75 to $5.25.

Milkers and Spingers.—Receipts of milkers and spingers were liberal, the market for which was dull, with prices much lower, the demand not being equal to the supply.

Prices ranged at from $40 to $60 for good to choice cows, with common at $33 to $37 each. Drivers will need to go easy on the milch cow end of their business.

Veal Calves.—The market for veal calves was firmer, at $4 to $7 per cwt., or an average of $6.40 per cwt. A very few calves of choice quality were reported at $8.

Sheep and Lambs.—Sheep were about $1 per cwt. lower in price, ewes selling at $3.50 to $4.50 per cwt.; rams, $3 to $3.50 per cwt.; yearling lambs, $5.50 to $6.50; spring lambs, $4 to $6.50 each.

Hogs.—The hog market continues firm, sales of selects, fed and watered at the market, being quoted at $6.75, and $6.45 f. o. b. cars at country points.

The Man Who Waits.

All things will come to him who waits, the wise man said, and went to bed, but history, methinks, relates that they don't get there till you're dead. It is a creed for lazy men, for idlers in the marketplace; the man who tries and tries again that chap the good thing always chase.
I used to throw my hours away, I loafed through many sunny Junes, while other men were making hay, and nothing came to me but prunes. "Good things will come some joyous morn," I said, "if I stay on the job." And other men were eating corn while I was chewing on the cob. And after many years I said:
"That logic's surely out of plumb; I've waited till my nose is red, and still the good things do not come." Then I rolled up my gingham sleeves, and cracked my heels, and gave a yell, and started bringing in my sheaves, since which I've done surpassing well. I own a cow, a pair of pigs, a phonograph without a crank, and divers other thingy-jigs, and have six dollars in the bank.—Walt

Drowned in Cistern.

Woodstock, June 6.—Mr. Philip Meadows, an old and respected resident of West Zorra, was drowned yesterday in the cistern. His son, with whom he lived, had gone to a barn raising, leaving his father at home. A neighbor, Mr. Jas. McKay, went to see Mr. Meadows, and not finding him, went to look for him. Hearing a moan, apparently coming from the cistern, he looked down and saw Mr. Meadows clinging to the pump log. Unable to get him out he got assistance, but when Mr. Meadows was hauled out the doctor pronounced him dead. It is supposed the deceased was trying to rescue a lamb which had fallen into the cistern.
