ROWICK FALL SHOW.

HOWICE FAIL SHOW. The fall exhibition of the Howiek Agricultural Society was held at Ford-wich on Tnesday last. Notwithstanding the rainy weather, there was a good turn-out of people. The show this year was below the average of township exhibi-tions, and considerably short of what might be expected from such a rich mericultural district as the township of Howick. No doubt the unfavorable weather had much to do with this. Some fair cattle were shown, also a few pens of good sheep. In the hell a moderate collection of fruit was exhibit-ed, which contained some very fine epecimens. The peaches shown by Mr. Newton of Fordwich would have done credit to the best fruit section of Ontario. Some good roots are grown in Hweick;
