HILDA ESTELLE VAUGHN

Wolfville has been called upon to mourn the death of one of its most accomplished and talented young ladies, Miss Hilda Estelle Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement M. Vaughn died at Dorchester, Mass., Saturday, June 9th, and the remains were brought to Wolfville and interned here on Wednesday last. The funeral was very largely attended and many floral tributes spoke silently of love and esteem of many for the departed. The service was conducted by Dr. A. C. Borden of Canning, uncle of deceased assisted by Rev. F. J. Armitage, Drs A. C. Chute and J. W. Manning.

The deceased was one of Wolfville's most popular and clever daughters and was dearly beloved by many friends. She was a graduate of Acadia University in the class of 1908 and of Smith College the following year. In 1911 she was given a fellowship from Smith and took the M. A. degree. She then went south and was for some time a teacher at Hampton Institute. For three years she filled a position at "The House in the Pines" at Norton, Mass., and then went to the University of Maine, where she filled the position of instructor of English and afterward was assistant professor in the same branch. Finding her health failing a year ago she was given a leave of absence for two years. Last November she was obliged to give up work and has since, in spite of every care, failed rapidly. Her mother remained with her during the winter and accompanied the remains to Wolfville. The sad ending of this bright young life is a severe blow to the sorrowing family who have the heartfelt sympathy of all, in their sad bereavement.

WOLFVILLE'S TALENTED MUSICIAN

EVELYN STARR IN NEW YORK

The Orchestral Society of New York, Max Jacobs, Conductor, presented an interesting program at its third "pop" concert on the evening of June 3rd at the Standard Theatre, New York. The assisting artists were Evelyn Starr violinist, and Vernon d'Arnauld, harpist. The programme was rendered most successfully from every standpoint. Evelyn Starr, the young Canadian violinist, received a welcome which was nothing short of an ovation. She gave an admirable reading of Mendelssohn's Concerto, in which she was accompanied by the Orchestral Society. Her splendid technique and discretion in phrasing and bowing, was in evidence at all times. She exercises considerable poetic feeling in her work, making it unusually pleasing. Miss Starr responded to at least six or seven recalls, but declined to give an encore, much to the disappointment of her hearers. "Musical Courier," New York, June 7th, 1917.

SYDNEY TRIES TO RETAIN KENTVILLE'S NEWLY APPOINTED PRINCIPAL OF SCHOOLS

Sydney Record: J. Logan Trask, of the Academy staff, submitted his resignation to the Board of Schools Commissioners on Monday evening. The resignation was not accepted, and it was moved by Comr. Moore and seconded by Comr. Hanrahan that the committee on school management be instructed to have an interview with Mr. Trask and ask him to reconsider his resignation. Comr. Hanrahan and Black spoke very highly of Mr. Trask, and the Mayor also said Mr. Trask had come to his present that he was very sorry to hear that decision. His personal relations with Mr. Trask had been said, always been most friendly, that he held him in the highest esteem and hoped the committee would be successful in inducing Mr. Trask to reconsider his resignation.

KENTVILLE, A. F. & A. M.

The members of the Kentville Lodge will meet at their Lodge room Sunday evening, 6.30 for the purpose of attending divine service at St. James' Church. Visiting members invited to be present.

By order of W. M.,
A. M. SHAW, Secy.

Rev. R. B. and Mrs. Layton returned from Montreal on Saturday evening. The attendance at the Assembly was large, almost 600 commissioners being present. The question of conscription is uppermost in Montreal. Open air meetings are being held every night by the French who are bitterly opposed, and feeling runs high between English and French on this subject. Returned soldiers are set upon, if unprotected, and riots have already taken place when crippled soldiers have been ill-treated by gangs of Frenchmen. Soldiers are being kept in the city.
